CAMP COPE, ALI BARTER, EMMA RUSSACK AND GABRIELLA COHEN HEADLINE NGV SUMMER SUNDAYS IN 2017

NGV International | 5 – 26 February 2017 | Free entry

23 DEC 2016: Breakout rockers Camp Cope, former triple j unearthed winner Ali Barter, acclaimed singer-songwriter Emma Russack, and emerging indie pop artist Gabriella Cohen are the headline acts for the upcoming season of Summer Sundays at NGV International. This FREE, all-ages event series runs from 1pm-6pm every Sunday through February 2017 in the NGV Garden.

Tony Ellwood, Director, NGV, said, 'The National Gallery of Victoria is pleased to once again invite visitors to experience some of Melbourne's most talented emerging performers in the unique setting of the NGV Garden, featuring the distinctive and playful 2016 NGV Architecture

Commission by M@ Studio Architects.'

Summer Sundays also offers DJ sets, an Asahi pop-up bar, delicious food, and sweet treats from Gelato Messina, who will create a bespoke flavour for each week of the series.

In 2017, Summer Sundays will include a special colouring activity for kids.

The Summer Sundays 2017 season dates are:

5 February: Gabriella Cohen

12 February: Ali Barter

19 February: Emma Russack

26 February: CAMP COPE

Summer Sundays will be held in the NGV Garden each Sunday through February 2017, from 1pm-6pm. Entry is free.
