

RELAXED EVENING TERRACOTTA WARRIORS & CAI GUO-QIANG

MON 2 SEPT, 5.30–7.30PM
NGV INTERNATIONAL

What is a Relaxed Evening?

A Relaxed Evening is an opportunity for visitors with autism, sensory sensitivities, dementia or disability and their families or carers to have a quieter Gallery experience, with fewer people and reduced noise.

The NGV will be closed to the public as usual at 5pm, then reopen at 5.30pm for visitors who have booked to attend the Relaxed Evening. The session will conclude at 7.30pm.

The event ticket includes access to 2019 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces exhibitions Terracotta Warriors: Guardians of Immortality presented in parallel with Cai Guo-Qiang: The Transient Landscape.

The sound elements inside the exhibition will be lowered for this session.

What is the recommended age range?

The Relaxed Evening is open to all ages.

How can I book tickets?

Tickets can be booked over the phone by calling 03 8620 2222 or online.

Is there somewhere to take a break?

Yes. The Great Hall will be a designated quiet space during the Relaxed Evening, where visitors can take a break at any time.

While using this quiet space, we ask that visitors follow these guidelines:

- Have phones on silent
- Talk quietly
- If using headphones, have volume on low
- Do not bring food into the room

Can I take my own headphones or ear plugs into the exhibition?

Yes. You are welcome to bring any headphones, ear plugs, fidgets or other self-regulating devices into the exhibition, as long as they are hand held and do not present a risk to artworks or other visitors. Food and drink are not permitted inside exhibition spaces.

Are there any guidelines for my visit?

Whenever you are at the NGV you need to refrain from:

- touching artworks on display; and
- eating or drinking in artwork display areas.

Whenever you are at the NGV you need to:

- leave any large bags, umbrellas, or any other item identified by NGV security staff, at the NGV Cloakroom;
- wear footwear at all times which will protect you against injury; and
- supervise any children in your care
- you are welcome to take photos of the artworks without using the flash.

Will the Gallery Kitchen and NGV design store be open?

Yes, both Gallery Kitchen and NGV design store will be open during the Relaxed Evening session. Coffee, tea, hot chocolate and a selection of cold, sweet and savoury foods will be available for purchase from Gallery Kitchen, on Ground Level.

Is the NGV accessible for people who use wheelchairs or people with limited mobility?

Yes, all Gallery spaces including exhibitions, entrances, exits, café, toilets and Great Hall are wheelchair accessible. Wheelchairs are available for free hire, and can be booked by calling 03 8620 2222.

Where are the accessible toilets? Are there parent facilities?

There are three accessible toilet locations on Ground Level. There is also a parents' room equipped with baby change facilities, private feeding space and a microwave. Please refer to the sensory map for specific locations. Breastfeeding is welcome at the NGV.

Will staff be available if I have any questions?

Yes. Our customer service and security team members are here to assist with any queries you may have while at the Gallery. Staff will be located in the main foyer, cloakroom, exhibition spaces, café and NGV design store.
