WELCOME

The National Gallery of Victoria is a place for everyone and warmly welcomes children, teenagers and families.

This year, the NGV Kids Summer Festival presents nine days of artist-led activities, performances, music and dance, especially for children and the whole family – and everything is free!

With this guide you can find activities to get everyone moving, discover something new, relax or express yourself.

MAKE ART, MAKE FRIENDS!

NGV LOCATIONS

NGV INTERNATIONAL

180 St Kilda Road
10am–5pm daily

THE IAN POTTER CENTRE: NGV AUSTRALIA

Federation Square
10am–5pm daily

FACILITIES FOR FAMILIES

PRAMS

NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia are fully pram accessible and you are welcome to take your pram into Gallery spaces. Any large bags that are not stored underneath prams will need to be cloaked. The Great Hall and Grollo Equiset Garden are great places for children to roam, relax, stretch their legs or lie back and gaze at the stained-glass ceiling.

FOOD

Family-friendly food options are available at Gallery Kitchen. You are also welcome to bring food from home to eat in the Great Hall or Grollo Equiset Garden. Bring a picnic lunch! Please remember food and drink cannot be consumed in NGV Kids exhibitions or other Gallery spaces, for the protection of works of art on display.

PARENT FACILITIES

At NGV International, a dedicated parents' room provides a quiet space for families, plus a microwave and private feeding space. Breastfeeding anywhere you feel comfortable is welcome at NGV.

NGV COLLECTION

The NGV Collection is free to explore every day at NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. For tips on visiting the NGV with young children or for a low sensory visit, see ngv.melbourne/kids

ACCESS

The NGV is a place for everyone. For information on how we can support your visit, see ngv.melbourne/access

INDIGENOUS HIP HOP PROJECTS

Hip-hop began in New York City in the 1970s and is celebrated by people all over the world. Feel the power of the beat and dance to the rhythm of this energetic crew of hip-hop dancers! Crump, lock and spin – let's see your hip-hop moves. Based in the suburb of Brunswick, Indigenous Hip Hop Projects is a creative team of artists who chiefly work with Indigenous communities across Australia, inspiring the next generation through music, theatre and performance.

WHEN Mon 13 & Thu 16 Jan, 11am–12pm & 1–2pm

LITTLE GEMS UNDERGROUND SUNDAE

Fashion paper into jewellery with Melbourne contemporary jeweller Annemieke Ytsma from Underground Sundae. With a DIY approach Annemieke takes everyday objects and vintage jewels and turns them into delicate jewellery with an edge. Inspired by the jewellery designer's imagery, everyone is invited to create a neckpiece to wear with pride at this year's Festival.

WHEN Sat 11, Sun 12, Mon 13 & Tue 14 Jan, 10am–3pm
