ART IS FOR EVERYONE!

WELCOME

The National Gallery of Victoria is a place for everyone and warmly welcomes children, teenagers and families.

This year, the NGV Kids Summer Festival presents nine days of activities to enjoy in the Gallery or from the comfort of your home. With online and in-person events, on-demand videos, downloadable activity sheets and games, there's something for everyone – and everything is free!

AT THE GALLERY

Entry to the NGV is free and dedicated session times are available online for visits to NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. Find out more at ngv.melbourne

NGV TRIENNIAL 2020

NGV INTERNATIONAL | UNTIL 18 APRIL 2021 | FREE

The NGV Triennial brings together contemporary art, design and architecture from over 100 artists and designers from 33 countries around the world. This free exhibition celebrates the work of some of the world's most accomplished artists and designers.

FREE EXHIBITION FOR KIDS

Part of NGV Triennial, artist Misaki Kawai presents Moja Moja Life: Misaki Kawai for Kids, an indoor playground featuring a display of colourful furry sculptures of dogs and a puppet studio. With a love of mimetic word pairings spoken in the Japanese language, such as 'moja moja' (hairy), and an interest in children's creative play and making, Misaki shares her playful approach to creating art with the NGV's youngest visitors.

FREE ACTIVITIES FOR FAMILIES

Spark creativity with a series of artist and designer workshops in the Great Hall. Capacity is limited.

Collect your free activity sheets to take your family on a treasure hunt through the Gallery, finding doggie friends in the NGV's Grollo Equiset Garden or exploring on a colourful adventure for young alchemists. For more information, see page 10.

DISCOVER THE HOME OF AUSTRALIAN ART

Explore the best of Australian art with free exhibitions at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, Fed Square. Top Arts 2020 celebrates the exceptional and thought-provoking work of VCE Art and VCE Studio Arts students from across Victoria. Marking Time: Indigenous Art from the NGV explores drawings and markings of figures, signs or text made on public surfaces across Indigenous Australia. TIWI celebrates the unique art and culture of the Tiwi people of Melville and Bathurst Islands and explores the dynamic trajectory of Tiwi art across time and across media, from 1911 to now.

ONLINE EVENTS

Bring the NGV into your home with a series of online events, including a dance party, meditation session and art-making demonstrations for kids.

Events can be accessed through the NGV website. Booking is not required, but we recommend registering to receive an email reminder prior to the event. Please join online events ten minutes prior to the start time.

For the best experience, participant microphones and cameras will be turned off. We'd love to hear your comments and questions in the chat bar.

If you miss a live event, the recordings will be available as on demand videos to watch when it suits you. All videos will be captioned and available at ngv.melbourne/kidsfestival

ONLINE ACTIVITIES

Stay active and inspired throughout January with our online resources that you can access anytime, anywhere! Downloadable activity sheets and games can be printed, or simply take inspiration with pen and paper in hand.

FACILITIES FOR FAMILIES

PRAMS

NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia are fully pram accessible and you are welcome to take your pram into Gallery spaces. Any large bags that are not stored underneath prams will need to be cloaked. The Great Hall and Grollo Equiset Garden are great places for children to roam, relax, stretch their legs or lie back and gaze at the stained-glass ceiling.

FOOD

Family-friendly food options are available at Gallery Kitchen at NGV International and Crossbar Cafe at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. You are also welcome to bring food from home to eat in the Great Hall or Grollo Equiset Garden. Please remember food and drink cannot be consumed in NGV Kids exhibitions or other Gallery spaces, for the protection of works of art on display.

PARENT FACILITIES

At NGV International, a dedicated parents' room provides a quiet space for families, plus a microwave and private feeding space. Breastfeeding anywhere you feel comfortable is welcome at NGV.

ACCESS

The NGV is a place for everyone. For information on how we can support your visit, see ngv.melbourne/access. For tips on visiting the NGV with young children or for a low sensory visit, see ngv.melbourne/kids
