PRESIDENT’S FOREWORD

On behalf of the Council of Trustees of the National Gallery of Victoria (NGV), it is my pleasure to present the Gallery's 2022/23 Annual Report.

It has been fantastic to see audiences once again enjoying all the NGV has to offer, in a year of exceptional programming and exhibitions. I would like to acknowledge and thank the Victorian Government for its continued support as the NGV helps lead Victoria's recovery from the challenging years of the pandemic. The Strategic Direction 2022–25 continued to inform the activities of the NGV throughout the year. The Gallery's undertakings attracted 2,461,376 visitors across both of our sites. I am proud of the exceptional quality and scale of the exhibitions and programs that the NGV has delivered to the public.

International exhibition highlights have included the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® 2022 exhibition, The Picasso Century; the summer blockbuster exhibition Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse; and the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® 2023 exhibition, Pierre Bonnard: Designed by India Mahdavi. Australian offerings included Indigenous Art from the NGV Collection, Fred Williams: The London Drawings and Rigg Design Prize 2022. We were excited to engage our local art and design community with the opening of Melbourne Now at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, a decade on from the first edition of this ambitious and groundbreaking exhibition.

Comprehensive planning for The Fox: NGV Contemporary continued this year. Work officially commenced on the Melbourne Arts Precinct Transformation, Australia's largest arts and culture infrastructure project, which will include the new Gallery. It was also wonderful to display The Fox: NGV Contemporary Design Competition Exhibition, where entries from eight design teams who competed to design The Fox: NGV Contemporary were shared with the public. I congratulate Angelo Candalepas and Associates for their winning entry in this competition. Their timeless design will be a new Australian landmark for our city.

We are tremendously grateful for the support and dedication of the Gallery's many donors. Their efforts and generosity have ensured the NGV Collection and programming have continued to flourish. I thank those who have donated to specific projects, as well as those who have donated works of art to the Collection. A full list of our 2022/23 donors can be found on pages 126–132. The NGV is sincerely thankful for your passion and enthusiasm for our arts and design community.

The many accomplishments of the NGV this year are also thanks to our many friends, volunteers, Members and Partners. I recognise the dedication and support of the NGVWA President, Tania Brougham. I acknowledge the support of the NGV Voluntary Guides and thank President Dr Anne Hunt OAM. I also thank outgoing President of the NGV Voluntary Guides Brian Martin OAM, who retired from the role in November 2022. Furthermore, I recognise and thank the NGV Business Council and Chair Tim Royce.

I acknowledge the many years of dedicated service of former Chair of the Felton Bequests' Committee, Sir Andrew Grimwade CBE, who sadly passed away in January 2023. Sir Andrew was connected with the NGV for almost sixty years and was also recognised as a Life Member and Emeritus Trustee. We are tremendously grateful to Sir Andrew for his incredible contributions to the Gallery over many decades. We have lost a treasured friend who will be dearly missed and fondly remembered by all at the NGV. Vale Sir Andrew.

The Felton Bequest remains highly significant in the growth and development of the NGV Collection. I extend my deep thanks to the Felton Bequests' Committee for all its support. I would like to warmly welcome Rupert Myer AO who assumed the role of Chair of the Felton Bequests' Committee in March 2023.

The NGV is thankful for the many sponsors and corporate Partners who have supported the Gallery this year. These connections with the corporate sector, education and tertiary institutions, and media and tourism have allowed the NGV to carry out an ambitious range of activities, programs and exhibitions that have reached audiences far and wide.

The continued success of the NGV would not be possible without the enduring support of the Victorian Government. On behalf of the entire Council of Trustees and the NGV's Executive Management Team, I wish to thank the Premier, the Hon. Daniel Andrews MP; the Deputy Premier, the Hon. Jacinta Allan MP; and the Minister for Creative Industries, Steve Dimopoulos MP. I extend thanks to the previous Secretary of Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions, Simon Phemister; the Secretary of Department of Jobs, Skills, Industry and Regions, Tim Ada; and Chief Executive, Creative Victoria, Claire Febey.

I would like to thank my fellow Trustees, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM, Lisa Gay, Sarah Lowe, Rachael Neumann and Andrew Penn AO. I especially wish to thank Leigh Clifford AC, who ended his term on the Council of Trustees in March 2023, for his committed service and generosity to the NGV over many years.

I acknowledge the vital contributions of the NGV's various council committees. I would particularly like to thank the external members whose expertise was greatly appreciated throughout the year: Caroline Coops, Carmen Lam (from April 2023) and Bronwyn Ross on the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee; Chris Pidcock and Andrew Sisson AO on the Investment Committee; and Eric Nash on the Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists (VFLAA) Committee. I would also like to thank Simone Nolan, who departed the VFLAA Committee in February 2023.

With appreciation, I recognise the NGV Foundation Board's Chair, Leigh Clifford AC, and Board Members who served this year: Emeritus Board Member the late Sir Andrew Grimwade CBE, President Hugh M. Morgan AC, Neville Bertalli, Norman Bloom, Geraldine Buxton, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM, Philip Cornish AM, Peter Edwards, Paula Fox AO, Morry Fraid AM, John Higgins AO, Joanna Horgan AM, Barry Janes, Craig Kimberley OAM, Michael Tong, Michael Ullmer AO and Neil Young KC. I also warmly thank Paul Bonnici who concluded his term with the NGV Foundation Board in December 2022.

On behalf of the Council of Trustees, I congratulate the Director, Tony Ellwood AM, the executive team, and all NGV staff for their incredible efforts in delivering another successful year at the NGV.

DIRECTOR’S REVIEW

I am delighted to introduce the NGV’s Annual Report for the 2022/23 financial year. As we reflect upon the year, I am immensely proud of the tremendous efforts of everyone involved in delivering an outstanding array of exhibitions, programs, scholarly research and acquisitions.

The NGV Collection has continued to grow and expand during the year. With gratitude, I would like to acknowledge the enormous efforts and dedication of our philanthropic community with their support in cultivating a Collection of such breadth and depth. A complete list of our wonderful supporters from this year can found on pages 126–132.

October saw the conclusion of the 2022 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® exhibition, The Picasso Century, developed exclusively for the NGV by the Centre Pompidou and the Musée national Picasso-Paris. We were absolutely thrilled with the response to this bold and ambitious exhibition of over eighty works by Picasso alongside over 100 works by more than fifty of his contemporaries.

The summer months saw an extensive range of exhibitions opening at both NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. Exhibition highlights at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia included Fred Williams: The London Drawings, the first exhibition dedicated to Williams’s London period during the years 1952 to 1956. Indigenous Art from the NGV Collection, Rigg Design Prize 2022, The Fox: NGV Contemporary Design Competition Exhibition and the 2022 Mecca Holiday Collaboration: Nadia Hernández were also exhibited at NGV Australia across the summer period.

At NGV International, summer exhibition programming included Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Art and Design from the NGV Collection, which presented NGV works of furniture, lighting, painting, film, sculpture and installation to tell complex stories about art and design making. Our younger audiences had the opportunity to enjoy Julian Opie: Studio for Kids, an interactive exhibition that focused on drawing, observation and portraiture.

In early December 2022, the NGV opened our summer blockbuster exhibition, Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse. Showcasing more than 120 garments and accessories, fifty-two of which were acquired with the exceptional support of Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM, the exhibition celebrated the work of one of the most groundbreaking and original fashion designers in recent history. For this exhibition, the NGV was incredibly fortunate to draw upon our own NGV Collection and the collection of collaborating institution, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. NGV Friday Nights also accompanied the exhibition, with some fantastic musical talent taking centre stage to complement McQueen’s extraordinary works. A catalogue of more than 400 pages was also published alongside the exhibition.

Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse coincided with the fourth annual NGV Gala, which we were overjoyed to reinstate following a hiatus due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This glorious evening of fashion and spectacle was headlined by Indigenous Australian rapper, Baker Boy, with a special appearance from Australian singer G Flip. We were also delighted to have Canadian supermodel and Alexander McQueen muse Shalom Harlow in attendance on the night.

Adam Newman and Kelvin Tsang were announced as the winners of the 2022 NGV Architecture Commission, with their architectural installation Temple of Boom, which opened in December in the NGV International Grollo Equiset Garden. The commission was an evocative reimagining of the Parthenon on the Acropolis in Athens. It evolved and changed during its display, as it was painted by a team of Melbourne artists who drew inspiration from the vibrant colours and rich artistic embellishments that defined the original building.

Programming for children and young people at the NGV once again heavily featured this year. The NGV Kids Summer Festival returned in 2023 with nine days of free activities for children and families. Additionally, NGV Kids on Tour resumed in partnership with a record of more than 130 venues, offering children and families across regional and metropolitan Victoria the opportunity to engage with art and creativity with free school holiday activities and workshops. Numerous offerings for teens continued this year, including the sold-out NGV Teens: Art Party in which teens took over the NGV in an evening of art, fashion, music and workshops in celebration of Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse. Top Arts 2023 also opened at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, exhibiting fantastic and engaging artworks completed by students during their studies for the Victorian Certificate of Education. Exhibition offerings for young visitors also continued throughout the year, with the June opening of Up, Down and All Around: Daniel Emma for Kids, in which young visitors were invited to look again at everyday objects and express their creativity through design challenges and hands-on activities.

Community and international engagement were again a crucial aspect of our programming this year. The NGV hosted our annual Lunar New Year event with a focus on engaging local communities in a day of celebration. This free program attracted more than 16,000 visitors. The NGV also hosted its second Indian Utsav Community Day at NGV International. This free event welcomed the local Indian community to enjoy a day of art, dance, food and music at the Gallery.

The opening of Melbourne Now took place in March at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. Ten years after the inaugural 2013 Melbourne Now exhibition, the 2023 exhibition highlighted the latest local art, architecture, design and cultural practice shaping Melbourne. It included more than 200 contemporary projects and events across all three levels of NGV Australia, including fashion and jewellery, painting, sculpture, architecture, ceramics, video, performance, printmaking and publishing. A cornerstone of the first Melbourne Now, Community Hall, returned as a space to gather, connect and celebrate Melbourne’s diverse and creative communities, as well as popular NGV Kids interactive projects. A comprehensive publication was also released, detailing every practice in the exhibition.

Progress was made in the realisation of The Fox: NGV Contemporary, as work officially began on the Melbourne Arts Precinct Transformation. Fundraising for the new Gallery was also a major focus of our activity this year. I would like to warmly thank the individuals and families who have made philanthropic commitments to The Fox: NGV Contemporary this year. They join the extraordinary commitment of $100 million made in early 2022 by Lindsay Fox AC, Paula Fox AO and their family.

In partnership with the Victorian Government, the annual Melbourne Design Week returned in May, in which an eleven-day program of talks, tours, exhibitions, launches, installations and workshops took place across Australia’s design capital. A key event was the Melbourne Art Book Fair, where more than eighty publishers presented books, magazines, zines, art prints and more. Melbourne Design Fair also returned in collaboration with Melbourne Art Foundation, for its second year. Supported through the Melbourne City Revitalisation Fund, a Victorian Government and City of Melbourne partnership, the Fair showcased exciting collectable design and included more than fifty presentations staged by an outstanding array of commercial galleries, design agencies, craft and design organisations, and independent design studios.

Pierre Bonnard: Designed by India Mahdavi was the 2023 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® exhibition. Opening in June, the exhibition presented the iridescent paintings of Bonnard within immersive scenography by Paris-based designer India Mahdavi. Developed in partnership with Musée d’Orsay, Paris, it featured more than 100 works by the celebrated French artist, spanning the late nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth century.

Also opened in June at NGV International was Rembrandt: True to Life. The exhibition followed the work of the seventeenth-century Dutch master from his early years in Leiden in the 1620s through to his final years in Amsterdam in the 1660s. It presented more than 100 etchings, alongside paintings and drawings from the NGV Collection, and important loans from the Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam; National Gallery of Art, Washington DC; the Louvre Museum, Paris, Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna; and Teylers Museum, Haarlem.

In support of the Gallery's exhibitions and Collection, the NGV continued to deliver innovative and high-quality scholarly research throughout the financial year. This included seven major print titles and nineteen digital outcomes, such as online essays, from our outstanding publishing program. Many NGV publications earned major publishing and design awards this year, with full details listed on page 29 of this report.

The NGV Collections Strategy 2020–23 informed the progress and advancement of the Collection. A full list of acquisitions is available to view on pages 40–67 of this report. We are thrilled that we have been able to continue to develop and expand our collections of art and design with the enthusiastic support of our generous donors and philanthropic community. I thank the NGV Foundation Board, including Chair Leigh Clifford AC, and I extend my gratitude to each donor who has contributed to the Gallery this year. It is because of your support that we can consistently deliver exhibitions and programs of such an impeccable standard.

I recognise and sincerely thank our corporate Partners and supporters. We are truly grateful for their enduring dedication and support. I would especially like to acknowledge Principal Partners Mercedes-Benz, MECCA, Telstra, Macquarie Group, Country Road, Deakin University and American Express, as well as Premium Partners HSBC Australia and Tiffany & Co.

I thank the NGV's Trustees, including President Janet Whiting AM, for sharing their valuable guidance, knowledge and leadership with us this year. I would particularly like to recognise Leigh Clifford AC, who concluded his term on the Council of Trustees in March 2023, for his tireless contributions to the Gallery across numerous years of outstanding service.

I extend my appreciation to the previous Secretary of the Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions, Simon Phemister; the Secretary of Department of Jobs, Skills, Industry and Regions, Tim Ada; and Chief Executive, Creative Victoria, Claire Febey.

Lastly, I would like to sincerely thank all NGV staff. Their creativity, commitment and teamwork has enabled another year of fantastic success.

2022/23 PERFORMANCE REPORT

BRINGING ART AND DESIGN TO LIFE

ACQUISITION HIGHLIGHTS

In 2022/23, the NGV Collection continued to grow, guided by the Collections Strategy 2020–23. A full list of acquisitions in 2022/23 can be found on page 40. The NGV Collections Strategy provides strategic directions for building the NGV's permanent collection.

Important acquisitions of painting and sculpture from the late nineteenth and early twentieth century were made possible with the generous support of the NGV community. Auguste Rodin's Walking man (L'homme qui marche. Moyen modele), conceived 1899–1900, cast 1964, was gifted by Sandra Bardas OAM and David Bardas AO and is the first of Rodin's important non finito works to enter the Collection. Major paintings – including Suzanne Valadon's Nude with drapery, 1921, donated by Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family, and Giorgio de Chirico's Piazza d'Italia, 1953, supported by John and Cecily Adams, and Dr Peter Chu and Robert Morrow – build on the Gallery's holdings of early and mid twentieth-century art. This collecting area was further bolstered with the acquisition of Tuscan landscape, c. 1930, by Australian artist Eveline Syme, purchased with the support of the June Sherwood Bequest and Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family. The transformative donation by Lyn Williams of more than 450 works by Fred Williams establishes the NGV as the definitive repository of Fred Williams's print and drawings practice.

The acquisition of international contemporary art was an ongoing strategic priority during this period, with works being acquired for presentation in the NGV Triennial 2023. Paintings by American artists Sayre Gomez and Lucy Bull, Czech artist Vojtěch Kovařík and English painter Flora Yukhnovich entered the Collection with the support of July Cao. Andrew Xue supported the acquisition of Chase Hall's diptych God is you, 2022, and three photographs by Indian practitioner Gauri Gill entered the Collection via the Bowness Family Fund for Photography. Also acquired in advance of the NGV Triennial were works by ceramist Song Wei; Malagasy artist Joël Andrianomearisoa, supported by donors of the 2023 Curatorial Tour; Chinese artist Tao Hui; and German filmmaker and photographer Hito Steyerl. A large-scale installation by Mexican architect Tatiana Bilbao was acquired as the inaugural MECCA x NGV Women in Design Commission. The Gallery's holdings related to the important Young British Artists movement was strengthened with the donation of works by Mat Collishaw supported by Bambi Blumberg; Jake and Dinos Chapman, donated by Rob Gould; and Mark Leckey, gifted by Danny Goldberg.

Contemporary Australian art was generously supported by the Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists, and the work of a diverse range of artists was acquired for display in Melbourne Now. Key acquisitions included work by Megan Evans, Scotty So, Katheryn Leopoldseder, Christopher Day, Peta Clancy, Janina Green, Atong Atem, Martin Bell, Lee Darroch, Esther Stewart, Martin Bell, Kait James and Pitcha Makin Fellas. The large-scale sculpture Mountain climber, 2022, by Troy Emery was acquired through the 2022 NGV Summer Appeal.

The Gallery's collection of contemporary First Nations art and design was enriched with the major painting Ngangkari Ngura (Healing Country), 2022, by Betty Muffler, which was supported by Barbara Hay and Hay Family, The JTM Foundation, D'Lan Davidson and Rachel Jacobs, Mr Chris Thomas AM and Mrs Cheryl Thomas, Rosemary and Nora Merralls, Linda Herd and the Canny Quine Foundation, and Margaret Lodge and Terry Murphy. The acquisition of Wanapati Yunupingu's Gurtha (Road closed for ceremony), 2021, was supported by Christopher Thomas AM and Cheryl Thomas. Mavis Ngallametta's large-scale painting Ikalath #10, 2012, was donated by Martin Browne. Julie Shaw's Maayama-li, 2022, entered the Collection as the 2021–22 Indigenous Fashion Commission, supported by Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family. Ten fish traps, 2021–2022 by Burarra-Martay, Yolngu women strengthened the Gallery's growing First Nations fibre collection, and was supported by Sarah and Brad Lowe, Violet Sheno, Linda Herd, Beatrice Moignard, Wendy and Paul Bonnici, Kade McDonald, Craig Semple and Nicholas W. Smith.

The Gallery's collection of early twentieth-century photography by women practitioners was significantly enhanced this year with works by Helen Levitt, Ilse Bing, Madame d'Ora and Germaine Krull, supported by the Bowness Family Fund for Photography. Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family supported the acquisitions of photographs by Louise Dahl-Wolfe, Barbara Morgan, Ruth Orkin, Florence Henri, Imogen Cunningham, Lotte Jacobi and Dora Kallmus. Prints by Pablo Picasso, Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec and Joan Miró were gifted from the Estate of Brian Myddleton Davis AM, building on the Gallery's holdings of modernist works on paper.

The Gallery's holdings of historical art and design by women continued to grow with the landmark acquisition of Berthe Morisot's Embroidery (La Broderie), 1889, supported by Barry Janes and Paul Cross, Paula Fox AO and Fox Family Foundation, Norman Bloom and Pauline Bloom, Myriam Boissbouvier-Wylie and John Wylie AM, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family, The Bowden Marstan Foundation, Ken Harrison AM and Jill Harrison OAM, John and Rose Downer Foundation, Tim Fairfax AC and Gina Fairfax and donors to the 2021 NGV Foundation Annual Dinner and the 2021 NGV Annual Appeal. French painter Marie Victoire Lemoine's A young woman leaning on the edge of a window (Une jeune femme appuyée sur une croisée), 1799, and Louise Abbéma's Portrait of Renée Delmas de Pont-Jest, 1875, entered the Collection as gifts from Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family. Window from the Unitarian Church of All Souls, Evanston, Illinois, c. 1902, designed by American architect

Marion Mahony was a significant addition to the Gallery’s holdings of twentieth-century design and was also gifted by Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family.

A major series of woodblock prints by Utagawa Hiroshige, The Fifty-three stations of Tokaido, c. 1833–34, and two late Edo prints by Utagawa Hiroshige and his student Hiroshige II were generously supported by the late Baillieu Myer AC and Sarah Myer.

The Gallery’s collection of major twentieth- and twenty-first-century fashion continued to grow, enriched with works exhibited in Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse in 2022. Twenty works by Alexander McQueen joined the Collection in 2022/23, supported by Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family.

EXHIBITIONS AND DISPLAYS

In 2022/23, the NGV presented an extensive and exciting program of exhibitions, displays and public programs that engaged with a diverse audience across a range of media. A total of thirty-three exhibitions were presented at NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, as well as major programs Melbourne Art Book Fair, Melbourne Design Week, and Melbourne Design Fair (held at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre). In addition, five exhibitions toured internationally and regionally. Touring highlights included Maree Clarke: Ancestral Memories, which was presented at the Australian Embassy in Paris and the regional touring exhibition Australiana: Designing a Nation, which opened at the Bendigo Art Gallery. A selection of the exhibition highlights from the year are as follows.

ALEXANDER MCQUEEN: MIND, MYTHOS, MUSE

Drawn from the collections of the National Gallery of Victoria and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse was a bold and reflective examination on the creative process of British fashion designer Lee Alexander McQueen. This major summer fashion exhibition expanded upon the NGV’s McQueen holdings and featured more than 120 garments and accessories alongside runway footage and intimate backstage photography taken by Robert Fairer. The interdisciplinary impulse that defined McQueen’s designs was captured by the thoughtful display of more than eighty artworks alongside McQueen’s designs spanning painting, sculpture, textiles, prints, photography and decorative arts. Alongside an ambitious scenography and soundscape, this exhibition featured collections – such as The Widows of Culloden and Deliverance – to emphasise McQueen’s dressmaking and garment-construction skills to explore classism, sexuality, historicism and heritage. Additionally, renowned Los Angeles-based clothing and jewellery designer Michael Schmidt was commissioned to create a series of bespoke sculptural headpieces to accompany the fashion works. Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse offered audiences insight into McQueen’s far-reaching sources of inspiration and highlighted his capacity for storytelling.

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT: CONTEMPORARY ART AND DESIGN FROM THE NGV COLLECTION

Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Art and Design from the NGV Collection explored NGV Collection works bound by their capacity to reveal the centrality of movement. Bringing together more than sixty works from the NGV Collection, this exhibition considered the gestural, technological and geographical qualities of movement in a range of mediums, such as furniture, painting, film, sculpture and installation. Separated into ‘movements’, the exhibition opened with a selection of Japanese design studio nendo’s iconic 50 manga chairs, 2015, situated in a grid. Moving onto the immersive and interactive before closing with the sculptural, Freedom of Movement featured the work of Shilpa Gupta, Alicja Kwade, Rafael Lozano-Hemmer, KAWS, Patricia Piccinini, Nick Cave and Fred Wilson. The artists and designers presented in this exhibition considered complex stories about art and design-making, as well as highlighting the NGV’s ongoing commitment to collecting new, groundbreaking contemporary art and design. The exhibition also saw the reprisal of the popular 2018 children’s commission Julian Opie for Kids.

CHINA – THE PAST IS PRESENT

China – The Past is Present juxtaposed the NGV’s historical and contemporary collections of Chinese art and design with an emphasis on the legacy of cultural and artistic traditions and their ongoing resonance in contemporary China. Drawn primarily from the NGV Collection and highlighting recent acquisitions, the exhibition offered a new interpretation of the NGV’s expansive collection of Chinese art and design. The exhibition presented recently acquired work by Xiao Lu, widely considered to be China’s first feminist performance artist, as well as work by members of the first wave of contemporary artists in China who were granted asylum in Australia after the 1989 Tiananmen Square protests. Featuring a variety of art forms – including painting, calligraphy, ceramics, lacquerware, textiles, furniture and video – the exhibition spanned five millennia of artistic practice and presented cross-temporal connections between subject matter and form.

RICHARD MOSSE: BROKEN SPECTRE

Co-commissioned by the National Gallery of Victoria, Richard Mosse’s moving image work Broken Spectre, was a powerful response to the devastating and ongoing impact of deforestation in the Amazon Rainforest. Broken Spectre was presented across an immersive twenty-metre widescreen panorama and utilised visually arresting strategies to depict the unfolding crisis; the work shifted in scale and focus to convey the urgent environmental fault lines more powerfully. This work was filmed over three years in remote parts of the Amazon Rainforest, with the use of satellite cameras exposing the destruction’s scale and organisation. The world premiere of Broken Spectre transported NGV audiences to the burning tracts of the tropical rainforest and revealed the environmental, anthropocentric and non-human violence that the Amazon suffers.

THE GLOBAL LIFE OF DESIGN

The movement of people and resources throughout history has precipitated the exchange and development of ideas, technology and knowledge. This NGV Collection-based exhibition considered the global exchange of commodities that has inevitably influenced design traditions and the rise of both a luxury market and consumer culture. Highlights of the exhibition included the etching of Bay with two large Dutch sailing vessels, 1956, by Dutch artist Renier Nooms who used his intimate knowledge of sailing to accurately document the inner workings of maritime commerce. The introduction of tea into Europe and the resulting impact on design and manufacturing industries was highlighted with an exquisite Teabowl and saucer, c. 1720–25, manufactured in Böttger porcelain, the earliest hard-paste porcelain formula employed at the Meissen Porcelain Factory in Germany. Spanning the Middle Ages through to the present day, The Global Life of Design showcased NGV Collection works in a broad thematic approach to the influence of global trade on design process and practice. The works on display were created from – or in response to – materials that became available through global trade. By displaying in juxtaposition important historical designs and contemporary works, The Global Life of Design examined the complex legacy of trade and its entanglement with colonialism.

MECCA X NGV WOMEN DESIGN COMMISSION: TATIANA BILBAO

For the inaugural MECCA x NGV Women in Design Commission, Mexican architect Tatiana Bilbao created a large-scale installation that explored domestic labour in contemporary society. This five-year exhibition series is supported by MECCA and significantly strengthened the NGV’s collection of contemporary design works by women. Bilbao’s installation La ropa sucia se lava en casa (Dirty clothes are washed at home), 2022, incorporated a large communal washbasin and a collaborative textile made during public workshops held in Mexico City, Berlin and Melbourne. Beginning with the concept of protection, and the warmth and shelter that clothing offers, La ropa sucia se lava en casa considered architecture as a primary form of care. This installation drew attention to the way space is shaped by dominant ideologies and promoted conversations about unpaid labour, gender politics, sustainability and care.

RIGG DESIGN PRIZE 2022

The Rigg Design Prize is the highest accolade for contemporary design in Australia and is awarded to an Australian design practice displaying outstanding creative achievements in contemporary design. The ninth edition of this exhibition series, Rigg Design Prize 2022, asked eight leading Australian-based advertising and creative communications agencies to explore the theme of ‘creative potential’. From the built environment to the digital devices we carry, advertising permeates every facet of our lives. Rigg Design Prize 2022 brought together some of the most creative minds in graphics, typography, communications design, film and psychology. The agencies developed and displayed a range of campaign assets – including billboards, street posters and moving images – to celebrate how creativity can shape who we are and the world we live in. The prestigious Rigg Design Prize was awarded to Leo Burnett Australia, for their campaign ‘Can creativity make you bleed?’.

FRED WILLIAMS: THE LONDON DRAWINGS

Fred Williams is celebrated as one of Australia’s most significant landscape painters, with his abstracted and energetic renderings of landscape an important influence on how Australians view their country. However, Fred Williams: The London Drawings explored Williams’s lesser-known early commitment to drawing and painting the human figure. The first exhibition dedicated to Williams’s London period of 1952 to 1956, the display presented a selection of the drawings, sketches and studies that Williams brought back with him to Melbourne after his time in London. These works, often unfinished or reworked, speak to his accomplishment as a draughtsman and represent the full range of his drawing oeuvre. This exhibition was made possible by the contribution of Lyn Williams AM and Family, and showcased works that were never intended for exhibit but clearly foreshadow the artist that Williams would become.

Melbourne Now

Ten years on from the first groundbreaking exhibition, the second edition of Melbourne Now was presented at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia and was a celebration of new and ambitious local art and design. In totality, Melbourne Now highlighted the extraordinary work of more than 200 Victorian-based artists, designers, studios and firms whose practices are shaping the cultural landscape of Melbourne and Victoria. While there was a focus on new works and commissions by emerging, mid-career and senior practitioners, this exhibition also saw the return of Community Hall as a space to gather and connect, and the popular Design Wall. Traversing all three levels of NGV Australia, this large-scale exhibition featured more than sixty world-premiere works commissioned especially by the NGV, as well as contemporary interventions across the Australian art and First Nations permanent collection displays. From fashion and jewellery, painting, sculpture, architecture and ceramics, to virtual reality, performance, printmaking and publishing, Melbourne Now 2023 was a bold celebration of both creativity and locality.

MELBOURNE WINTER MASTERPIECES 2023® PIERRE BONNARD: DESIGNED BY INDIA MAHDAVI

Pierre Bonnard is one of the most beloved painters of the twentieth century and is celebrated for his use of colour to convey an exquisite sense of emotion. This iteration of the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® series presented the paintings of Bonnard beside the immersive scenography of Paris-based designer India Mahdavi. Featuring more than 100 works by Bonnard, this exhibition was developed in partnership with Musée d’Orsay, Paris, and was largely drawn from the museum’s impressive holdings of works alongside significant loans from other international collections. The award-winning architect and designer India Mahdavi was commissioned to create the scenography for this kaleidoscopic exhibition, with wall and floor applications and furniture adding a three-dimensional experience to the sumptuous domestic interior worlds synonymous with Bonnard’s paintings.

REMBRANDT: TRUE TO LIFE

The most comprehensive exhibition of Rembrandt’s work to be held in Australia in twenty-five years, Rembrandt: True to Life followed the work of the seventeenth-century Dutch master from his early years in Leiden in the 1620s through to his final years in Amsterdam in the 1660s. More than 100 etchings were presented alongside paintings and drawings from the NGV Collection, in addition to important loans from several international museums, including the Rijksmuseum, the Louvre Museum and the National Gallery of Art, Washington DC. With a thematic approach, Rembrandt: True to Life provided insight into the scope of Rembrandt’s creative innovation and explored key themes, such as portraiture, religious motifs, landscapes, nudes and genre scenes. The NGV holds the most important Rembrandt collection in the Southern Hemisphere, and this exhibition was a unique opportunity for audiences to understand the innovative ways in which Rembrandt approached subject matter, and the development of psychological complexity throughout his oeuvre.

UP, DOWN AND ALL AROUND: DANIEL EMMA FOR KIDS

Up, Down and All Around: Daniel Emma for Kids was an invitation for budding young designers to learn about the role of design in the world they live in. Developed exclusively for the NGV by design duo Daniel Emma, this exhibition sought to inspire young imaginations and engage children’s problem-solving skills. Incorporating a number of interactive activities and creative challenges, children were encouraged to take materials into their hands and to work together with materials, such as upholstered geometric forms and multimedia. With a sushi train inspired installation, transporting a rotation of objects for children to choose from and then re-design, this exhibition encouraged young audiences to see the centrality of design in our world.

THE FOX: NGV CONTEMPORARY DESIGN COMPETITION EXHIBITION

The Fox: NGV Contemporary Design Competition Exhibition celebrated the visionary and dynamic work and creativity of eight multidisciplinary Australian design teams, who took part in the design competition that ultimately led to the selection of the winning NGV Contemporary design by Angelo Candalepas and Associates. In 2021, the design competition was announced by the Victorian Government. In an unprecedented move for a competition of this scale and civic profile, the competition was open exclusively to Australian architecture teams, which was an important acknowledgement of the depth of Australian architectural talent. The Fox: NGV Contemporary Design Competition Exhibition revealed the quality and breadth of ideas submitted by each team through the featured architectural drawings, renders, material prototypes, video presentations and more. This exhibition, displayed at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, focused on the material developed and submitted by each team for the competition.

RESEARCH AND CONSERVATION

The NGV Conservation department prepares and cares for Collection and loan works for display and exhibition, and strategically evaluates display and storage environments. In tandem with this, the department undertakes scientific and art historical research to offer unique insights into the understanding of works of art and the conservation practice, as well as publicly disseminating this information through NGV-led and industry forums.

During 2022/23, the department completed condition assessments for all borrowed works, outgoing NGV Collection loans and new acquisition submissions. Significant contributions were made to temporary and travelling exhibitions and regular permanent collection changeovers, including the production of mounts, frames and bespoke object display mechanisms, and treatment of works for display. Major conservation treatments were completed for works including James Tissot’s An interesting story, c. 1872; Henry Moore’s Draped seated woman, c. 1872; Charles and Ray Eames’s Storage unit, model ESU-400, 1952–55; Frank Lloyd Wright’s Window, from the Avery Coonley Playhouse, Riverside, Illinois, 1912; Marion Mahony’s Window from the Unitarian Church of All Souls, Evanston, Illinois, 1902; Rafael Lozano-Hemmer’s Please empty your pockets, 2010; and Alexander McQueen’s Look 20, 2008–09, from the designer’s 2008 collection The Girl Who Lived in the Tree.

In preparation for the exhibition Rembrandt: True to Life, the Paper and Photographs conservation staff documented and studied the watermarks in the NGV’s collection of 140 Rembrandt prints – a growing collection of the artist’s intaglio works first purchased in 1891. An array of imaging techniques was used to gain a deeper understanding of the artist’s printmaking materials and processes. This research contributes to the international Bernstein Consortium: The Memory of Paper watermark database, which is available to the public for the first time as an online database on the NGV’s website. Additionally, the Paintings conservation team completed the treatment of Portrait of Rembrandt by the Studio of Rembrandt. This oil painting was acquired by the NGV in 1932; its attribution was doubted by scholars until NGV research conducted during the 1990s found two key pieces of evidence that tied the painting to Rembrandt’s studio.

The Frames and Furniture department completed treatment of the frames for Giorgio de Chirico’s Piazza d’Italia, 1953, and Édouard Vuillard’s La conversation, chez les Natanson à Valvins, 1896, which included repairs to the frames as well as precautionary low-oxygen pest treatment for the de Chirico. Through the NGV Centre for Frames Research, reproduction frames were completed for Louis Buvelot’s At Point Nepean, 1875; Marie-Victoire Lemoine’s Portrait of Madame Leclerc, c. 1798–99, based on a Directoire-style frame from the late eighteenth century; and Annie L. Swynnerton’s The lady in white, 1878, based on a Watts-style frame from c. 1887.

During this period, the Conservation department also carried out an audit of the NGV’s time-based media collection and initiated the Digitisation Project in partnership with the Registration department. The aim of this project is to migrate all works on magnetic tape to current digital formats before the year 2025, of which over one-third is already complete. This project, made possible with the generous funding from Supporters of Conservation, will ensure this collection of early video works spanning the early 1970s to the early 2000s is kept for perpetuity and remains accessible to the public. Notable titles include Hermine Freed’s early feminist video Art herstory, 1974, Ken Unsworth’s live performance documentations Five secular settings for sculpture as ritual and burial piece, 1975 and Marr Grounds’s (son of architect Sir Roy Grounds) Sculpture at the Top Ends, 1977–78.

Through generous funding from the Bank of America Art Conservation Project, the Conservation department appointed a Conservator of Indigenous Art who undertook conservation treatment of important Western Desert artworks in the NGV Collection that were produced in the 1970s and 1980s by the Papunya and Lajamanu communities. The project utilised a holistic preservation strategy that draws upon the values and guidance of the Lajamanu and Papunya peoples, in addition to the physical needs of the works so that they can be stored and displayed safely. Further, through the support of the Gidleigh Foundation, the department appointed an Objects Fellow specialising in decorative arts conservation – the only fellowship of its kind in Australia – to focus on the treatment of decorative artworks in the NGV Collection and also to address the skills shortage that exists in decorative arts care across the regional gallery network, through the delivery of outreach programs by the NGV.

In addition, the ongoing research partnership with the Getty Conservation Institute continued and has entered its next phase with the implementation of adaptive climate control methods to balance risk and sustainability aims. As such, Bizot Green Protocols settings are currently being rolled out across all permanent collection areas of NGV International and at galleries that have loaned NGV works, where possible.

Conservation staff also undertook professional development, with members from the department attending the ‘Building Aboriginal cultural competency’ workshop at the Koorie Heritage Trust to build on cultural literacy knowledge and develop an awareness of Aboriginal culture and identity. In addition, a member of the Paintings department attended the Ancient Panel Paintings: Examination,

Analysis and Research Project Concluding Conference in Amsterdam, which was organised by the J. Paul Getty Museum. This conference examined the findings from the nine-year international collaborative project into Egyptian mummy portraits, including seven works in the NGV Collection.

During the period, the Conservation department also engaged with the tertiary sector by hosting interns from The University of Melbourne’s Master of Cultural Materials Conservation course, and delivered lectures to students from The University of Melbourne and Deakin University. The department continued to support the regional gallery sector and presented webinars focused on collection care and material specialities.

PUBLISHING, ENQUIRY AND INTERPRETATION

Throughout the year, the NGV Collection and exhibition program prompted new writing and research to be released in the form of online essays and print publications, including publications for Fred Williams: The London Drawings, Observations: Women in Art and Design History and Melbourne Now 2023. The innovative Melbourne Now Broadsheet, a publishing and design contribution to the exhibition featuring Melbourne-based authors, designers and typographers, was both a response to the exhibition and a work within the display, being available for audiences to take away from the exhibition following their visit.

Observations: Women in Art and Design History, published in March, was the culmination of the landmark 2022 online series of the same name, in which world-leading scholars and international experts examined the historical contributions of women to the fields of art and design from 1500 to 1970. In online publishing, a thematic issue of the NGV’s scholarly Art Journal of the National Gallery of Victoria, edition 58, was launched digitally, presenting peer-reviewed essays by curators and academics focused on queer scholarship inspired by the NGV Collection.

NGV Magazine profiled in-depth the NGV Collection and exhibitions across six magazine editions, available in print and online. Through the writing of a variety of international and local authors, audiences were invited to delve deeper into works on display and in the Collection, discovering stories, voices and research for a richer understanding of art, design and the NGV.

In addition to online resources, NGV Learning publications featured student trails ‘The National Gallery of Vegetables’, developed in collaboration with Melbourne artist Kenny Pittcock, and a sculpture trail focused on works in the NGV Garden at NGV International.

The NGV also facilitated public and adult learning programs through moderated panel discussions for major exhibitions with NGV curators and leading industry experts, commentators and academics. The new NGV Scholars Series delivered three major events with presentations prepared by world-leading experts in art history. These extended the reach of select programs through livestreams, which were broadcast direct from the NGV to international audiences.

VICTORIAN FOUNDATION FOR LIVING AUSTRALIAN ARTISTS

The Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists (VFLAA) was established in 2002 with a grant of $5 million from the State Government of Victoria, matched by an equal contribution from the NGV’s Council of Trustees.

The VFLAA has the following objectives:

- Increase support for living Australian artists by purchasing and exhibiting Australian art, with an emphasis on contemporary Australian visual art.
- Enable public galleries throughout Victoria to exhibit high-quality examples of contemporary Australian visual art.
- Expand the NGV’s purchasing capacity for contemporary Australian visual art and enhance the state Collection’s holdings of such work.
- Grow the VFLAA Fund in real terms over time.

The VFLAA Committee convened three times during the financial year: in August 2022, December 2022 and April 2023. In 2022/23, the VFLAA acquired a total of fifty-nine works across a range of disciplines.

The NGV thanks the regional representatives on the VFLAA Committee: Eric Nash and Simone Nolan (to February 2023).

The table opposite provides an overview of the performance of the VFLAA in 2022/23.

NGV KIDS AND TEENS

Through an annual program of exhibitions, events and publications, the NGV welcomes families and children. As part of the free summer exhibition, Freedom of Movement, children explored the NGV’s expanding contemporary art collection through an integrated offering comprising interpretative art labels, an exhibition activity trail and Julian Opie: Studio for Kids, an interactive exhibition for children and families developed in collaboration with the contemporary British artist. Generously supported by exhibition Partners City of Melbourne and Spencer Ko, more than 58,000 children visited NGV International during the exhibition, while 9000 children and families participated in the exhibition activity trail.

Integral to the Melbourne Now exhibition, children and families participated in exhibitions, programs and activities designed to inspire creativity, curiosity and wonder. Artist James Lemon invited children to immerse themselves in his interactive, tactile installation, Swarming, 2023, while exhibiting artists Gracia and Louise collaborated with the NGV to create Remaking Home, a collage activity that introduced visitors to the environmentally important grey-headed flying fox species depicted in their artwork, The remaking of things, 2023. The monthly artist-in-residence hosted in Community Hall featured a series of Drop-By activities developed by Melbourne Now artists and designers Gracia and Louise, Brud Studia, Rel Pham and Jenna Lee.

Coinciding with the 2023 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® 2023 exhibition Pierre Bonnard: Designed by India Mahdavi, the NGV collaborated with leading Australian designers Daniel To and Emma Aiston to create Up, Down and All Around: Daniel Emma for Kids, an exclusive exhibition focused on developing early design literacy, inspiring young imaginations and engaging children’s problem-solving skills through design challenges and hands-on activities. It was generously supported by Officeworks, City of Melbourne and Spencer Ko.

LUNAR NEW YEAR CELEBRATIONS AT NGV INTERNATIONAL ATTRACTED MORE THAN 16,000 VISITORS TO THE GALLERY.

Australia, the January 2023 school holidays saw strong attendance with more than 13,000 children visiting the NGV Kids Summer Festival. Twenty-one percent of surveyed visitors to this tenth iteration of the annual festival were first-time visitors to the NGV.

The NGV presents a lively year-round program for teen audiences that complements the NGV's Learn school programs while serving to foster inclusion, social engagement and creative opportunities for this demographic at the NGV. Celebrating the summer exhibition Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse, the NGV Teens: Art Party, held late summer, was a sell-out event with 1000 young people enjoying an evening of art, fashion, talks and live music at NGV International. During winter, Teens After Hours focused on the exhibition Top Arts 2023 with an evening of talks, artist-led workshops, Teen Council programming and refreshments for up to 300 teenagers. These teen initiatives continue to be informed by the NGV Teen Council, now in its seventh year, and feature after-hours evening events and holiday workshops. These teen programs serve to share creative skills and career pathways, and connect young people with art, artists, ideas and each other. Selected from applicants across Melbourne, this year's NGV Teen Council members comprise a group of twenty secondary school students who meet NGV staff, learn about roles and career paths and collaborate on programs for teens at the Gallery, representing their peers. The program offers a unique work experience opportunity for participants, providing insights and access to the creative industries.

ENGAGEMENT WITH ARTISTS AND DESIGNERS

In 2022/23, the NGV continued to work with living artists and designers on commissioning, displaying and acquiring new artworks. Seventy-two works were commissioned for the exhibition Melbourne Now, which represented the work of more than 200 living artists and designers. The Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists supported the acquisition of fifty-nine works by thirty-eight living Australian practitioners, including works by emerging, mid-career and senior artists. More than sixty works by contemporary artists and designers were exhibited as part of Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Art and Design from the NGV Collection. The NGV also worked closely with living artists and designers on the development of the exhibitions Richard Mosse: Broken Spectre; the 2022 NGV Architecture Commission, Adam Newman and Kelvin Tsang's Temple of Boom; and the MECCA x NGV Women in Design Commission: Tatiana Bilbao.

The NGV continued its commitment to supporting and connecting audiences with working practitioners, engaging more than 240 local and international artists and designers in 2022/23. Audiences of all ages had the opportunity to connect with contemporary practitioners through virtual and onsite programs for children, teenagers and adults. Highlights included a workshop with Mexican architect and designer Tatiana Bilbao; a fashion design workshop for children with Paul McCann; talks and conversations with artists, including Richard Mosse, Richard Bell, Nadia Hernández, Patricia Piccinini, Shaun Gladwell and Murray Walker, designers Stephen Jones and Julie Shaw, as well as talks to celebrate the opening of Melbourne Now featuring more than thirty-five creative practitioners across two days. As part of the Melbourne Now programs, Design Wall Up Close featured a line-up of design studios and practitioners in back-to-back 'in conversations' with Studio Periscope, Fungi Solutions, Edward Linacre Studio, One Planet, Maton Guitars and Robert Gordon Pottery. The exhibition's Design Wall was also the focus of Design Wall Stories, a sold-out Melbourne Design Week Business Forum panel discussion led by freelance broadcaster Ali Moore and design industry panellists Vanessa Katsanevakis of Sussex Taps, Scott Haywood of Tontine and designer Adam Cornish. Also for Melbourne Now, the NGV commissioned new works by Melbourne-based performance artists Joel Bray, APHIDS, Alicia Frankovich and Jo Lloyd, as part of the Performance Program presented in Community Hall; and for NGV Friday Nights, the NGV commissioned artist Luke George to create a new work performed in response to Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse.

Living artists and designers made valuable contributions to a range of learning activities developed for students and teachers. Creative Catalyst programs for high-ability students featured sessions led by architect Louise O'Brien; artists Junko Azukawa, Kentaro Yoshida and Bern Emmerichs; writers Lili Wilkinson and Tony Thompson; and author-illustrator Graeme Base. In October, student events exploring the seriously funny side of art featured an art-themed performance by Japanese comedian and ventriloquist Showko Showfukutei; and an activity trail for the Gallery, developed in collaboration with artist Kenny Pittock. Artist and academic Linda Knight presented several teacher professional learning programs highlighting her 'inefficient mapping' methodology as a tool for engaging students with diverse learning needs. A new series of 'Creative Practice' learning resources for VCE students was launched, including video interviews with Ashley Gilbertson and Melbourne Now artists Gracia and Louise, Troy Emery, Mia Boe, Great Wrap, Globe International and Kelly Koumalatsos. Masterclasses and extended workshops for students and teachers were also led by Scotty So, Gracia and Louise and Jenna Lee.

NGV Voluntary Guides enjoyed presentations by artists Kelly Koumalatsos and Robert Haigh, as part of their regular education program. NGV Magazine also elevated the voices and work of contemporary artists and designers throughout the year with artist interviews and profiles of living artists, including Shaun Gladwell, Takahiro Iwasaki, Richard Mosse and Tatiana Bilbao.

NGV LEARN HIGHLIGHTS

The NGV gratefully acknowledges longstanding strategic partnerships with the Victorian Government Department of Education and the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria, which provides vital support for NGV student and teacher programs and activities.

Curriculum-aligned learning programs offered on request throughout the year included Gallery-based, outreach and online programs for students of all levels and multiple areas of the curriculum, including Visual Arts, Design, English, Languages and History. Program formats ranged from interactive Gallery-based discussions and studio-based workshops to online virtual excursions. The Department of Education's Victorian Challenge and Enrichment Series continued to provide opportunities for high-ability students at government schools to participate in tailored learning programs at the NGV during 2022, including an online 'in conversation' with author and illustrator Graeme Base presented in November. The department's Positive Start initiative – designed to re-engage primary and secondary students and boost their physical and emotional health and wellbeing in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic – provided supported visits to the NGV for students attending Victorian Government schools and low-fee paying non-government schools during 2022/23.

Dedicated programming for exhibitions included regular work-of-week online programs for WHO ARE YOU: Australian Portraiture and The Picasso Century. Livestreaming allowed a record number of VCE students to participate in the annual Art Industry Contexts Day for the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® exhibition The Picasso Century, which featured behind-the-scenes insights from NGV's curatorial, conservation, exhibition design and learning teams. Highlight programs for Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse included 'A Career in Fashion' 'in conversation' with London-based designer and maker Nafisa Tosh for local fashion design schools; a three-day fashion intensive summer school for secondary students with local designer Chelsea Hickman; and a La Trobe University accredited subject for undergraduate students presented onsite at NGV over six days by La Trobe University and NGV staff. Programs for Top Arts 2023 supported VCE students and teachers transitioning to new study designs in 2023 and included daily introductory and folio viewings, and a 'Meet the Artists' program.

Melbourne Now provided the platform for new programming initiatives, including 'Draw Now' a regular Drop-By program for schools and other visitors presented in Community Hall; an international student day held on the opening day of the exhibition that recognised the contribution international students make to Melbourne; and a teacher masterclass series that featured sessions presented by artists Gracia and Louise and Jenna Lee.

The Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family School Support Program again provided fully supported visits to NGV exhibitions – including coverage of transport costs, exhibition tickets and program fees – for students who otherwise would not have the opportunity to visit the Gallery. More than 1000 students and teachers from twenty-seven schools visited The Picasso Century and more than 630 teachers and students from twenty-six schools visited Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse. The NGV warmly thanks Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family for their generous support of this program, which is now in its tenth year.

The three-year Your NGV Arts Access Program for Students, Children and Families, supported by the Packer Family Foundation and the Crown Resorts Foundation, concluded at the end of 2022. The program provided students, teachers and families at more than ninety disadvantaged schools with access to rich arts learning experiences through a wide range of onsite, online and outreach activities that included art-making workshops and NGV visits.

DIVERSE COMMUNITIES

The NGV continued to work to reflect and serve Victoria's diverse communities based on cultures, ability, gender and sexuality through partnerships, events and learning initiatives.

The NGV's 2022 NAIDOC Week celebrations were held at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia with a day of festivities presenting First Nations artists, musicians and performers. The event attracted 2,400 visitors and featured a live music performance by Kuku Yalanji, Jirrbal, Zenadth musician Kee'ahn; and a Community Tour led by Myles Russell-Cook, NGV Senior Curator, Australian and First Nations Art and the Koorie Heritage Trust. With the support of the National Foundation for Australia–China Relations, the NGV recruited twenty-one bilingual volunteer Community Ambassadors to support programs and initiatives to strengthen and promote understanding and engagement between Australia and China. During 2022/23, this included weekly tours of the NGV Collection in English and Mandarin at both The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia and NGV International, as well as Lunar New Year celebrations at NGV International to mark the Year of the Rabbit. In its second year at the NGV, the Lunar New Year day of festivities for all ages included lion dance performances by the Hong De Lion Dance Association, a paper lantern workshop led by Korean-Australian artist Suyeon Park; a K-POP dance performance by NV Dance Studio; tai chi by Tai Chi Australia; NGV Collection tours through the Asian art galleries, and complimentary NGV Lunar New Year red envelopes to gift to family and friends. The event attracted more than 16,000 visitors to the Gallery.

For the second year, the NGV hosted Indian Utsav Community Day on 24 June, which featured a rich offering of art, dance, food and music. Programming highlights included Bollywood and Jugalbandi Indian classical dance performances, Indian classical music, live DJ sets, family activities and a panel discussion with local Indian creatives.

In the second half of 2022, the NGV was proud to announce three new major cultural partnerships, which was an outcome of the landmark exhibition QUEER: Stories from the NGV Collection. Welcoming and amplifying the voices of the LGBTQ+ community, a series of programs throughout 2022 and 2023 were presented in collaboration with the Midsumma Festival, Australian Queer Archives and Minus18. Highlights included the NGV and Midsumma co-presenting five events during the Midsumma Festival, which were attended by more than 500 people. Community members and NGV curators co-presented programs including a response to the Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse exhibition, as well as Queer Collection Tours at both The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia and NGV International. For the first time, the NGV hosted the annual Minus18 Queer Formal®, which attracted 750 teen visitors for an evening of art, music and performance. For Pride Month in June, the NGV welcomed the Australian Queer Archives in a month-long residency in Melbourne Now's Community Hall, with talks, panels and workshops held every Sunday.

In celebration of World Autism Day, Yellow Ladybugs – a neuro-affirming organisation supporting autistic girls and gender diverse young people – held a special visit for 150 families at the NGV in April, which featured activities and before-hours access to Julian Opie: Studio for Kids. Also, in acknowledgement of Victoria's strong Greek cultural heritage, the NGV collaborated with the Hellenic Museum to co-present programs over the summer in 2022, as part of the 2022 NGV Architecture Commission Temple of Boom.

In addition, throughout Melbourne Now, Community Hall programs and partnerships had a strong focus on creating a diverse, inclusive and welcoming environment. This was achieved through singular events, collaborations or residencies with Multicultural Arts Victoria, Arts Projects Australia, Vision Australia, Footscray Community Centre, Koorie Heritage Trust, Living Positive Victoria, Moroccan Soup Bar, as well as many artists and designers participating in talks and panels.

NGV Learn programs included a focus on supporting teachers and students of English as a second or other language to use the Gallery as a resource for teaching and learning. This included three teacher professional learning programs presented in collaboration with VicTESOL, which is a professional association committed to promoting excellence in teaching English to speakers of other languages and supporting cultural and linguistic diversity through high-quality multicultural education.

NGV Magazine celebrated diverse voices throughout the year through commissioned authors, essays, artist and designer interviews and featured artworks. Highlights included an interview with Yuwaalaraay designer and recipient of the NGV's inaugural Indigenous Fashion Commission Julie Shaw in the March–April issue, which featured quotes published in language – a first for NGV Magazine – as well as an interview with artist Takahiro Iwasaki by Japanese journalist Miyuki Watanabe, published in the May–June issue with Japanese quotes.

OUTREACH AND REGIONAL ENGAGEMENT

NGV Kids on Tour encourages children and families across Victoria to engage with art, creativity and to connect with the NGV through a range of free hands-on activities and workshops. The program facilitates connection with the Gallery for people who would normally experience geographic, economic or social barriers in attending the NGV. The program is provided at no cost to venues and is offered to participants free of charge. The diverse program can be adapted to suit a venue's needs. The 2023 program reached a record of 133 venues in metropolitan and regional Victoria with the program being presented across various locations including metropolitan resource centres, public libraries, regional galleries, neighbourhood houses, community groups and children's hospital wards. This year's program aimed to foster social connection and engage creative thinking through making activities and games, supporting the wellbeing of communities.

Through the Your NGV Arts Access Program for Students, Children and Families, more than 1800 students and teachers participated in outreach programs, including creative art-making workshops delivered by NGV educators in schools. NGV educators also presented the program 'Creative Writing Challenges with writer Lili Wilkinson' at the Art Gallery of Ballarat. This event was part of the Victorian Challenge and Enrichment Series, which was supported by the Victorian Government Department of Education. During 2022/23, the department's Positive Start initiative, and the Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family School Support Program also supported the participation of regional, rural and remote schools in NGV Learning programs.

DIGITAL TRANSFORMATIONS

Innovative digital programming and multimedia experiences for major exhibitions and installations were developed by the NGV's cross-disciplinary teams. Artist James Lemon's installation Swarming, 2023, included a custom-designed social media filter enabling enhanced experiences in his ultraviolet light reactive hive. The NGV teams also worked with artists, including artists Rel Pham, Shaun Gladwell and Georgia Banks, to produce rich digital works. A suite of insightful video profiles of artists and designers also featured in Community Hall, on social media and on the NGV website. The daily schedule of events and programs was also integrated into the digital wayfinding design for the exhibition.

engaging animation, illustration, programming and sound effects, whereby participants designed digital versions of snacks and cakes using unexpected ingredients. During the period, online demand from the Gallery's youngest audiences continued to grow. REALISING OUR POTENTIAL

SERVING THE COMMUNITY

The NGV works to continuously improve everyday access for all visitors to enjoy an equitable and welcoming experience. In March, in consultation with Arts Access Victoria, the NGV developed and delivered access awareness training to more than 150 NGV staff working across a broad range of areas to further champion empathy in service and across visitor engagement. Additionally, the NGV’s long-running NGV Service Standards training continued for its seventh year, delivered to all new audience-facing staff as well as annual refresher training online for current staff.

In 2022, the NGV worked in collaboration with Specialist Art Educator, Karlee Sangster from Croxton Special School, to develop a suite of Accessible Learning with Art video resources designed to provide opportunities for students with different learning needs to view and meaningfully respond to works of art and design from the NGV Collection.

The Disability Access Committee, which comprises representatives from across the organisation, leads this mission as guided by the Disability Action Plan 2021–24. During 2022/23, resources supporting inclusive access included sensory maps of exhibitions, audio descriptions of NGV Collection highlights and online access to artwork labels to allow for them to be viewed according to a visitor’s vision needs. Access events were also available to provide tailored experiences. Relaxed Sessions offered out-of-hours access for those who could benefit from a quieter experience, including those with disability, autism, mental health or chronic health conditions. Relaxed Sessions were available for the exhibitions QUEER: Stories from the NGV Collection; Julian Opie: Studio for Kids; Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Design from the NGV Collection; The Picasso Century; Making Art: Imagine Everything is Real; Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse; Rembrandt: True to Life; Pierre Bonnard: Designed by India Mahdavi; Up Down and All Around: Daniel Emma for Kids; and Melbourne Now.

Other innovative program initiatives during the period included the launch of the Scholars Series, a new program of in-depth presentations by world-leading experts in art history responding to key works in the NGV Collection. The three-part Observations seminar program was attended by local, national and international audiences online, and also supported by the Gallery’s first published paperback of edited transcripts. New forms of Drop-By activities extended the NGV’s long-running and popular Drop-by Drawing program, and included Drop-by Poetry, Drop-by Collage and a new series of Drop-by and Make workshops for teens.

VOLUNTEER CONTRIBUTION

The NGV acknowledges the significant contribution of the many volunteers who dedicate their time to the Gallery. The NGV Voluntary Guides continued to make a vital contribution to the Gallery through a range of guiding activities including daily tours of the NGV Collection. Guides also worked with NGV Educators to host an online Gallery Visits You program, which provided valuable points of connection with the Gallery for many individuals in the community, including those in aged-care settings, and ‘Seniors Tea with NGV’, a monthly program offering informal conversation about art. The NGV Voluntary Guides also provided free Drop-By introductory talks and public tours for exhibitions including The Picasso Century and Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse. As part of their ongoing training program, NGV Voluntary Guides attended weekly lectures presented by Gallery staff and guest presenters, including artists and designers.

During 2022/23, the NGV launched a new volunteer program to train twenty-one international students as NGV Community Ambassadors. Generously supported by a grant from the National Foundation for Australia –China Relations, these volunteers deliver short weekly tours in English and Mandarin, and have supported community engagement in programs and initiatives throughout the year including the NGV’s Lunar New Year celebration, Kids Summer Festival and school holiday activities.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

The Fox: NGV Contemporary, Australia’s new home for contemporary art and design, will join the NGV International on St Kilda Road and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia at Federation Square as the NGV’s third site. Located at 77 Southbank Boulevard, and expected to open in 2028, The Fox: NGV Contemporary is the centrepiece of a transformed Melbourne Arts Precinct.

Adopting a co-design approach, the NGV team has been working in close collaboration with architects Angelo Candalepas and Associates, and their team of sub-consultants, on every aspect of the building design and operation of The Fox: NGV Contemporary, through workshops, discussions, research and information sharing.

This year has seen two major milestones reached: the completion of the Verified Concept Design and progress of the Schematic Design. The Verified Concept Design phase involved the review and update of The Fox: NGV Contemporary building drawings and reports that were submitted during the Design Competition, which focused on key functions of the new gallery: the arrival hall, the three floors of gallery space, the cafes, restaurant and bars, the shop, the learning facilities, as well as the supporting back of house and operational functions. The Schematic Design phase featured the delivery of detailed drawings, elevations and sections for the new Gallery, in addition to architectural, interior design and user-experience plans, and specialist reports across all building disciplines.

The NGV has also been working closely with the Melbourne Arts Precinct Transformation project Partners Melbourne Arts Precinct Corporation, Development Victoria, Creative Victoria and the Arts Centre Melbourne, on the Schematic Design for the new public urban garden that will be located between the NGV International, The Fox: NGV Contemporary, the Arts Centre Melbourne Theatres Building and Hamer Hall.

Early works at NGV International have begun in order to remain open to the public and to support operational requirements throughout the construction of the new facility. This includes the temporary relocation of staff accommodation and conservation laboratories. Preparation of the future site of The Fox: NGV Contemporary has also commenced.

The design and construction of The Fox: NGV Contemporary continues to be managed by the NGV’s delivery Partner, Development Victoria, in conjunction with MAP Co and Creative Victoria, and in collaboration with the wider Melbourne Arts Precinct Transformation project. The NGV is grateful to all project Partners for their support of the new gallery.

In realising The Fox: NGV Contemporary vision, the NGV is extremely grateful for funding from the Victorian Government as part of the Melbourne Arts Precinct Transformation, and to members of the philanthropic sector for their unprecedented financial support towards this once-in-a-generation project.

SHARING OUR VISION

Support from all areas of the community has had a tremendous influence on the NGV over the past year. Donations from individuals and foundations have not only sustained the growth and development of the NGV Collection, but also enabled the delivery of numerous Gallery programs and initiatives.

Active partnerships and collaborations with the academic, community, philanthropic and corporate sectors have greatly assisted the scope of the NGV’s programming, and government support has also been crucial in allowing the Gallery to fulfil its strategic aims.

SUPPORTED INITIATIVES

The NGV is extremely grateful to federal, state and local governments for their support of programs and exhibitions in 2022/23. In the 2022/23 State Budget, the Victorian Government renewed funding of $10.7 million per year for three years, enabling the continued delivery of the NGV’s exhibition program, including a suite of exhibitions and programs during the summer period focused on contemporary art and design.

In 2022/23, the first year of the renewed funding allocation, the NGV delivered the summer blockbuster exhibition Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse and a range of other international and Australian exhibitions, including Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Art and Design from the NGV Collection, Rigg Design Prize, Fred Williams: The London Drawings and the major survey exhibition Melbourne Now.

The Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® 2022 exhibition The Picasso Century, the headline summer exhibition Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse and the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® 2023 exhibition Pierre Bonnard: Designed by India Mahdavi, were all generously supported by the Victorian Government through Visit Victoria.

The NGV continued to facilitate the Victorian Design Program, an initiative of the Victorian Government’s Creative State strategy. This curated year-round calendar of events for the design industry, students, businesses and the broader public culminated with Melbourne Design Week.

The NGV received funding from the Melbourne City Revitalisation Fund, a partnership between the Victorian Government and the City of Melbourne, to support the Melbourne Design Fair to engage a broad audience, encourage re-engagement with city spaces and support local design practitioners.

Strategic partnerships with the Victorian Government Department of Education continued to provide valuable support for year-round student and teacher programs, and new learning resources linking the NGV Collection and exhibitions with the curriculum.

During 2022, the NGV also partnered with Department of Education to deliver a suite of learning experiences for high-ability students through the Victorian Challenge and Enrichment Series.

The NGV also supported the Victorian Government’s Positive Start initiative to re-engage primary and secondary students with the Gallery, and boost their physical and emotional health and wellbeing in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Through the National Foundation of Australia–China Relations, the Australian Government’s Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade provided funding to support an NGV Community Ambassadors project. This new initiative enabled the recruitment and training of a group of bilingual international students to support tours, talks and events, connecting Chinese and Australian communities.

THE NGV HAS RECEIVED AN EXTRAORDINARY LEVEL OF SUPPORT THIS YEAR, WITH THE NGV FOUNDATION RECEIVING MORE THAN $33 MILLION IN CASH DONATIONS AND GIFTED WORKS OF ART.

The NGV has also partnered with Study Melbourne, a Victorian Government initiative, on a new project that commenced in June 2023 that welcomes international students from a non-English speaking background to the NGV through a series of art-inspired programs that are designed to encourage social connection and to build students’ confidence in using conversational English.

This year the NGV continued instrumental fundraising efforts for The Fox: NGV Contemporary. Anticipated as Australia’s largest public art gallery dedicated to contemporary art and design, further support and major pledges were made to this transformative project, including the second instalment from the Fox Family Foundation of their extraordinary landmark $100 million commitment. The NGV is grateful to NGV Foundation Board member Paula Fox AO, Lindsay Fox AC and the entire Fox Family for enabling this moment in history. The Fox Family’s generosity was joined by donations and pledged commitments from The Ian Potter Foundation, Dr Carol Colburn Grigor via Metal Manufactures, Sam & Nina Narodowski, Rosie Lew AM, Maureen Wheeler AO & Tony Wheeler AO, Morry Fraid AM, Vivienne Fried & the Spotlight Foundation, the Ullmer Family Foundation, Gordon Moffatt AM & family, Michael & Emily Tong, Loris Orthwein, James Farmer & Rutti Loh and Charles Good AC & Cornelia Goode.

In May 2023, we were also pleased to officially launch the 2023 NGV Annual Appeal with an incredible work by Salvador Dalí, the iconic Mae West lips sofa, 1937–38. As one of only five in existence, it is an extraordinary chance to secure a major Surrealist sculpture by an internationally renowned artist. To date, the appeal has received an extremely positive response from the community, and the NGV extends sincere thanks to those who have supported the campaign, including leadership gifts from Mavourneen Cowen, Tim Fairfax AC & Gina Fairfax AC, The Betsy & Ollie Polasek Endowment, King Family Foundation, John Fast & Jenny Fast, Ralph Ward-Ambler AM & Barbara Ward-Ambler, along with support from John Bates & Lorraine Bates, Gwenneth Nancy Head Foundation, Fiona Adler, Forster Family Foundation, Lisa Gay & Ric West, Liana Kestelman, Peter & Celia Sitch Family Charitable Foundation, John Adams & Cecily Adams, Jahn Buhrman, Peter Canet & Ivanka Canet, Trevor Cohen AM & Heather Cohen, Linda Herd & the Canny Quine Foundation, Shareen Joel & Dean Joel, Susan Kimpton, The Valda Klaric Foundation, Jacqui L. Lamont, The Marmel Foundation, Lisa Ring, Anita Simon, Swann Family Foundation and Dinanda Waterham & Sietze Waterham, as well as donors to the 2023 NGV Foundation Annual Dinner and 2023 Annual Appeal donors.

In addition to the 2023 NGV Annual Appeal, in April the NGV was also pleased to announce the 2023 Rembrandt Appeal, with the ambitious goal of acquiring one of Rembrandt's remarkable etchings; Abraham Francen, Apothecary c.1657. As one of a small group of prints made by Rembrandt in the late 1650s, the work represents the culmination of Rembrandt's portraiture in the etching medium and will be a brilliant addition to the NGV Collection. We warmly thank those who have contributed donations to fund the acquisition of this extraordinary work, including leadership gifts from Barry Janes & Paul Cross, Ken Harrison AM & Jill Harrison OAM, Neil Young KC and Suzanne Kirkham. As well as support from Darcy Brennan & Deborah Galbraith, Angus Mackay, John Adams & Cecily Adams, Timothy Brown & Jennifer Brown, Evelyn Perks & Joel Cohen, Andrew Sisson AO & Tracey Sisson and Dr Craig D'Alton & Dr Peter Sherlock, along with those who wish to remain anonymous.

Donations towards the NGV Collection were received from many supporters, who enabled the NGV to acquire crucial works of art for Gallery visitors to experience for years to come. We recognise all donors who gave funds to support acquisitions in 2022/23 and sincerely thank Vivienne Fried, Carol Sisson, Andrew Michelmores AO & Janet Michelmores AO, Peter Mitrakas & Mary Mitrakas, Deborah Lennon & Anthony Lennon, Dr David Clouston & Dr Michael Schwarz, Berris Elizabeth Aitken, Dr George Kokkinos & Melissa Tonkin, Lea Boyce, Ronald Hood, Judy Matear, Peggy O'Neal AO, Bridget Patrick & John Patrick, Alan Roberts & Family, John Rush KC & Sandra Rush, Naomi Ryan, Dr Ian Porter & Dr Dinesh Sivaratnam and Sarah Watts & Ted Watts, along with donors who have generously supported anonymously.

The NGV thanks our Annual Giving donors who, through their ongoing support have contributed to important acquisitions in the collecting areas of Asian Art, Conservation, Contemporary Art, Contemporary Design and Architecture, Decorative Arts, Fashion and Textiles, First Nations Art, Australian Art, International Art, Photography, and Prints and Drawings. Equally outstanding support was received towards exhibitions, programs and Gallery initiatives throughout 2022/23, including major donations from Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family, Peter Clemenger AO, City of Melbourne, Bank of America, The Hugh D. T. Williamson Foundation, Metal Manufactures Limited, Gidleigh Foundation, Cicely and Colin Rigg Bequest, Susan Morgan OAM, The Betsy & Ollie Polasek Endowment, Helen Robinson, Beatrice Moignard, Spencer Ko, The JTM Foundation and Scanlon Foundation.

We thank donors who have warmly engaging with our planned giving program and recognise the impact of contributing a legacy to the NGV. We acknowledge all bequests received during the period, including Iris and Peter Barlow Bequest, Estate of Judith Gardiner, Suzette Marie Chapple Bequest, Max Smith Bequest, Warren Clark Bequest, Thomas William Lasham Fund, Kenneth Hadley Estate, Estate of Janette Mary Dunbar, Christine Ashby Bequest, E. & D. Rogowski Foundation, Marie Theresa McVeigh Trust, Elizabeth Alexandra Bequest and Thomas Rubie Purcell & Olive Esma Purcell Trust Fund.

Additionally, we celebrate the enduring legacy of the Felton Bequest and acknowledge the passing of Sir Andrew Grimwade CBE. Sir Andrew was involved with the NGV across a variety of leadership roles for almost sixty years, most notably as Chairman of the Felton Bequests' Committee which was highly regarded as one of the finest and most inspiring examples of philanthropic leadership.

The Gallery was delighted to be gifted significant works of art and design for the NGV Collection in 2022/23. This included major works donated directly by artists, including Ben Quilty, Reko Rennie through the Eva, Mila and Reko Collection, as well as the Estate of Mr Robert Rooney. Major gifts were received from donors Sandra Bardas OAM & David Bardas AO, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family, Estate of Brian Myddleton Davis AM, Lisa Goldberg & Danny Goldberg, Lyn Williams AM, Estate of Margaret Baxter, Martin Browne in memory of Mavis Ngallametta, Wendy King, Rob Gould, Bambi Blumberg, Scott Livesey Galleries, Michael S. Finally, we thank the members of the NGV Foundation Board, led by Chairman Leigh Clifford AC for their leadership and encouragement, along with the dedicated NGVWA under President Tania Brougham and their outstanding combined fundraising efforts this year. We give particular thanks to those who generously gave to major appeals through the NGVWA program, including the Hupert Family Foundation, Minimax, Husk Corporation, Jennifer Lempriere, Maggie Nanut, Vivien Knowles & Graham Knowles and Mutual Trust, along with the immense success of the major 2023 fundraising event, NGVWA presents 'Art of Bloom'.

2022/23 FINANCIAL REPORT

FIVE-YEAR FINANCIAL SUMMARY

BASIS OF PREPARATION

The Five-Year Financial Performance table distinguishes between the NGV's operating and non-operating activities in 2022/23, a distinction not readily seen in the comprehensive operating statement. This distinction is important as the comprehensive operating statement includes grants, donations, bequests, and expenditure that are committed for specific purposes including the purchase of Works of Art and Capital and one-off projects. These funds, in addition to investment income generated from the non-operating funds, are not available for operating purposes.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is treated as non-operating expenditure. The Victorian Government provides funding for capital purposes through the annual State Budget and Creative Victoria's Cultural Facilities Maintenance fund.

REVIEW OF OPERATING PERFORMANCE

The past year saw a welcome turnaround in activity at the NGV with there being a 128% increase in visitors to 2,461,376, including a 43% increase in students attending education programs to 89,628.

The NGV presented a broad spectrum of exhibitions, the highlights being the 2022 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® exhibition, The Picasso Century with 314,238 visitors and the major summer exhibition, Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse, which opened to the public on 11 December 2022, attracting 242,323 visitors. In addition, on 24 March 2023, the non-ticketed exhibition, Melbourne Now opened at NGV Australia celebrating new and ambitious local art and design showcasing 200 contemporary projects and events, including new works and commissions by emerging, mid-career and senior practitioners across mediums spanning from fashion and sculpture to performance and publishing.

The Gallery continued to embrace online service delivery in 2022/23, providing a wide range of information and experiences including virtual tours, online programs and courses and providing a connection to our audiences through social media platforms and direct email. NGV website visitation increased by 23% to 5,148,625 compared with the previous year.

The NGV is working towards the delivery of The Fox: NGV Contemporary which will transform Melbourne's Art Precinct and will be a major addition to Melbourne's creative offerings and culture. The NGV is truly grateful to the Victorian Government and to our extraordinarily generous donors for making this project a reality.

The operating result for the year was a deficit of $0.5 million (2021/22: $2.5 million).

REVIEW OF NON-OPERATING PERFORMANCE

The non-operating result fluctuates from year to year as it is comprised of investment income, cash, and non-cash gifts, proceeds from bequests, capital and non-operating grants, fundraising activities and depreciation. The 2022/23 non-operating result (including depreciation) increased by $33.1 million to a surplus of $28.1 million. The non-operating surplus for 2022/23 is a result of fundraising activities and the performance of the NGV's Endowed Fund, which is held for the acquisition of works of art. The Endowed Fund investment income fluctuates from year to year and the fund is invested for the long term.

NET RESULT

The net result for the year, which is the sum of the operating and non-operating results, was a surplus of $27.6 million (2021/22: deficit of $2.5 million).

BALANCE SHEET

NGV's balance sheet is dominated by the State Collection. In June 2021 a valuation of the State Collection was completed by Jones Lang LaSalle Advisory Pty Ltd. As at June 2023, taking into account $16.6 million of additions during the year, the value of the Collection was $4.206 billion.

Property, plant and equipment increased by $17.3 million in 2022/23 to $340.3 million as a result of $36.3 million in additions, including $28.2 million towards The Fox: NGV Contemporary and $8.1 million of capital additions, offset by $19.6 million in depreciation expensed during the year. Investments increased in fair value by $19.1 million to $112.5 million mostly as a result of a high level of returns from the NGV Endowed Fund. The investments are mostly held for the purchase of works of art, or other purposes as restricted by the donor or grantor.

FUTURE

In 2023/24, the NGV will continue to work towards attracting higher and more diverse audiences, leveraging off the scheduled exhibition program including the 2023 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® exhibition Pierre Bonnard, Rembrandt: True Life, 2024 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® exhibition and the non-ticketed Summer exhibition, NGV Triennial at NGV International, which will showcase global contemporary art and design.

The NGV continues to actively monitor its financial situation, working closely with Creative Victoria and the Victorian Government.

INDEPENDENT AUDIT REPORT

VAGO

Victorian Auditor-General's Office

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Council of the National Gallery of Victoria

Opinion

I have audited the financial report of the National Gallery of Victoria (the entity) which comprises the:

- balance sheet as at 30 June 2023
- comprehensive operating statement for the year then ended
- statement of changes in equity for the year then ended
- cash flow statement for the year then ended
- notes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policies
- declaration in the financial statements.

In my opinion the financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the entity as at 30 June 2023 and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the financial reporting requirements of Part 7 of the Financial Management Act 1994 and applicable Australian Accounting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

I have conducted my audit in accordance with the Audit Act 1994 which incorporates the Australian Auditing Standards. I further describe my responsibilities under that Act and those standards in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of my report.

My independence is established by the Constitution Act 1975. My staff and I are independent of the entity in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to my audit of the financial report in Victoria. My staff and I have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Council's responsibilities for the financial report

The Council of the entity is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Financial Management Act 1994, and for such internal control as the Council determines is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the Council is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless it is inappropriate to do so.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2023

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report

As required by the Audit Act 1994, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on the audit. My objectives for the audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, I exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Council
- conclude on the appropriateness of the Council's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

I communicate with the Council regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2023

NOTE 1. ABOUT THIS REPORT

The financial statements cover the National Gallery of Victoria as an individual reporting entity. The National Gallery of Victoria is a statutory authority established under the National Gallery of Victoria Act 1966, as amended, of the State of Victoria. Its principal address is:

180 St Kilda Road
Melbourne
Victoria 3004

The National Gallery of Victoria is an administrative agency acting on behalf of the Crown.

A description of the nature of the National Gallery of Victoria's operations and its principal activities is included in the Report of operations on page 5 which does not form part of these financial statements.

1.1 Basis of preparation

These financial statements are presented in Australian dollars and the historical cost convention is used unless a different measurement basis is specifically disclosed in the note associated with the item measured on a different basis.

The accrual basis of accounting has been applied in the preparation of these financial statements whereby assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses are recognised in the reporting period to which they relate, regardless of when cash is received or paid.

Consistent with the requirements of AASB 1004 Contributions, contributions by owners (that is, contributed capital and its repayment) are treated as equity transactions and, therefore, do not form part of the income and expenses of the National Gallery of Victoria. Additions to net assets which have been designated as contributions by owners are recognised as contributed capital.

Judgements, estimates and assumptions are required to be made about financial information presented. The significant judgements made in the preparation of these financial statements are disclosed in the notes where amounts affected by those judgements are disclosed. Estimates and associated assumptions are based on professional judgements derived from historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and also in future periods that are affected by the revision. Judgements and assumptions made by management in the application of Australian Accounting Standards (AASs) that have significant effects on the financial statements and estimates are disclosed under the heading: “Significant judgements or estimates”.

All amounts in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest $1,000 unless otherwise stated.

1.2 Compliance information

These general purpose financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Management Act 1994 (FMA) and applicable Australian Accounting Standards (AASs) which include Interpretations, issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB). In particular, they are presented in a manner consistent with the requirements of AASB 1049 Whole of Government and General Government Sector Financial Reporting.

Where appropriate, those AASB paragraphs applicable to not-for-profit entities have been applied. Accounting policies selected and applied in these financial statements ensure that the resulting financial information satisfies the concepts of relevance and reliability, thereby ensuring that the substance of the underlying transactions or other events is reported.

NOTE 2. FUNDING DELIVERY OF OUR SERVICES

The National Gallery of Victoria receives revenue from the Victorian State Government, commercial activities and philanthropic sources to meet its objectives. The State Government funding principally comprises the Government appropriation, grants for exhibitions and other ad hoc grants.

2.1 Grants

Income is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the National Gallery of Victoria and the income can be reliably measured at fair value.

The National Gallery of Victoria has determined that all grant income is recognised as income of not-for-profit entities in accordance with AASB 1058, except for grants that are enforceable and with sufficiently specific performance obligations and required to be accounted for as revenue from contracts with customers in accordance with AASB 15.

	2023	2022
Income recognised as income of not-for-profit-entities
Recurrent appropriations	52,334	51,416
General purpose	29,869	33,241
Total grants	82,203	84,657

Grants recognised under AASB 1058

The National Gallery of Victoria has assessed that grant income under AASB 1058 has been earned under arrangements that are either not enforceable and/or not linked to specific performance obligations.

Income from grants without any sufficiently specific performance obligations, or under arrangements that are not enforceable, is recognised when the National Gallery of Victoria has an unconditional right to receive cash which usually coincides with receipt of cash. On initial recognition of the asset, the National Gallery of Victoria recognises any related contributions by owners, increases in liabilities, decreases in assets, and revenue ('related amounts') in accordance with other Australian Accounting Standards. Related amounts may take the form of:

- contributions by owners, in accordance with AASB 1004;
- revenue or a contract liability arising from a contract with a customer, in accordance with AASB 15;

Grants recognised under AASB 15

Income from grants that are enforceable and with sufficiently specific performance obligations to customers are accounted for as revenue from contracts with customers under AASB 15. Revenue is recognised when the National Gallery of Victoria satisfies the performance obligations.

Revenue is recognised for each of the major activities as follows:

2.1.1 State Government – recurrent appropriation

Appropriations

Once annual Parliamentary appropriations are applied by the Treasurer and paid by the Department of Jobs, Skills, Industry and Regions to the National Gallery of Victoria, they become controlled by the National Gallery of Victoria and are recognised as income when applied for the purposes defined under the relevant Appropriations Act.

2.2 Operating activities revenue

Performance obligations and revenue recognition policies

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in the contract with the customer. The National Gallery of Victoria recognises revenue when it transfers control of a good or service to the customer. As the sales are made with a short credit term, there is no financing element present. Revenue is recognised when, or as, the performance obligations for the sale of goods and services to the customer are satisfied. Income from the rendering of services is recognised at a point in time when the performance obligation is satisfied when the service is completed; and over time when the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the services as it is provided.

Consideration received in advance of recognising the associated revenue from the customer is recorded as a contract liability. Where the performance obligation is satisfied but not yet billed, a contract asset is recorded.

NOTE 3. THE COST OF DELIVERING SERVICES

This section provides an account of the expenses incurred by the National Gallery of Victoria in delivering its objectives. In section 2, the funds that enable the provision of services were disclosed and in this note the cost associated with the provision of services are recorded.

3.1 Expenses incurred in the delivery of services

Supplies and services	3.2	(76,046)	(63,986)
Total expenses incurred in delivery of services		(118,760)	(102,290)

3.1.1 Employee expenses in the comprehensive operating statement

Employee expenses include all costs related to employment including wages and salaries, fringe benefits, leave entitlements, termination payments, superannuation contributions and Workcover premiums and also includes the cost of some contractors.

The amount recognised in the Comprehensive operating statement in respect of superannuation represents the contribution paid or payable by the National Gallery of Victoria to the superannuation funds of employees. The National Gallery of Victoria does not recognise any accrued defined benefit liability in respect of the plan(s).

Total employee expenses	(42,714)	(38,304)

3.1.2 Employee benefits in the balance sheet

Provision is made for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave and long service leave for services rendered to the reporting date and recorded as an expense during the period the services are delivered.

	($ thousand)
	2023	2022

Non-current employee benefits
Long service leave	486	160
Non-current on-costs	81	26
Total provision for employee benefits and related on-costs	7,589	6,999

Wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave

Liabilities for wages and salaries (including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and on-costs) are recognised as part of the employee benefit provision as current liabilities, because the National Gallery of Victoria does not have an unconditional right to defer settlements of these liabilities.

The liability for salaries and wages are recognised in the balance sheet at remuneration rates which are current at the reporting date. As the National Gallery of Victoria expects the liabilities to be wholly settled within 12 months of reporting date, they are measured at undiscounted amounts.

The annual leave liability is classified as a current liability and measured at the undiscounted amount expected to be paid, as the National Gallery of Victoria does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

No provision has been made for sick leave as all sick leave is non-vesting and it is not considered probable that the average sick leave taken in the future will be greater than the benefits accrued in the future. As sick leave is non-vesting, an expense is recognised in the Comprehensive Operating Statement as it is taken.

Employment on-costs such as payroll tax, workers compensation and superannuation are not employee benefits. They are disclosed separately as a component of the provision for employee benefits when the employment to which they relate has occurred.

3.2 Supplies and services

Supplies and services expenses are recognised as an expense in the reporting period in which they are incurred. Expenses from transactions are recognised as they are incurred and reported in the financial year to which they relate.

Cost of retail goods sold

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories shall be recognised as an expense in the period in which the related income is recognised. The amount of any write down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories shall be recognised as an expense in the period the write down or loss occurs.

Significant judgement: Classification of investments as ‘key assets’

The National Gallery of Victoria has made the judgement that the key assets identified below are utilised to support its objectives and outputs.

(i) A valuation of land was undertaken as of 30 June 2021.

(ii) A valuation of buildings, building plant and building fit-out was undertaken as of 30 June 2021.

Initial recognition:

Items of property, plant and equipment, are measured initially at cost and subsequently revalued at fair value less accumulated depreciation. Where an asset is acquired for no or nominal cost, the cost is its fair value at the date of acquisition.

The cost of constructed non-financial physical assets includes the cost of all materials used in construction, direct labour on the project and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overheads.

Subsequent measurement:

Property, plant and equipment (PPE) as well as right-of-use assets under leases are subsequently measured at fair value less accumulated depreciation. Fair value is determined with regard to the asset's highest and best use (considering legal or physical restrictions imposed on the asset, public announcements or commitments made in relation to the intended use of the asset) and is summarised on the following page by asset category.

As at 30 June 2021 an independent valuation of the National Gallery of Victoria's land was performed by Valuer-General Victoria and an independent valuation of the building was performed by Napier & Blakeley Pty Ltd on behalf of the Valuer-General Victoria.

An external revaluation process is required every five years, based upon the asset's Government Purpose Classification, but may occur more frequently if material movements in fair value are identified.

Specialised land:

The market approach is used for specialised land, although it is adjusted for the community service obligation (CSO) to reflect the specialised nature of the land being valued. Under the market approach the land is compared to recent comparable sales and in the interim years between valuations is adjusted to reflect the movement in Valuer-General Victoria land indices, if material. The CSO adjustment is a reflection of the valuer's assessment of the impact of restrictions associated with the land to the extent that is also equally applicable to market participants.

Heritage Building – Buildings, Building plant and Building fit-out:

The depreciated reproduction cost is the valuation method used for the National Gallery of Victoria's building, adjusting for the associated depreciation. Reproduction cost represents the cost of reconstruction including professional fees and escalation however excludes the cost of demolition and removal of debris of the existing building. It also assumes destruction occurs on the date for financial reporting. Depreciated reproduction costs reflect reproduction cost after applying depreciation on a useful life basis.

Leasehold improvements:

Leasehold improvements are held at fair value which has been determined as depreciated value and are depreciated over the period of the lease or estimated useful life of the asset, whichever is shorter.

Plant and equipment:

Plant and equipment is held at fair value which has been determined using the current replacement cost method.

4.1.1 Depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, including buildings but excluding land have finite lives and are depreciated. Depreciation is calculated on a straightline basis at rates that allocate the asset's value, less any estimated residual value, over its estimated useful life. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the period of the lease or the asset's estimated useful life, whichever is the shorter, using the straightline method.

The following useful lives of assets are used in the calculation of depreciation for current and prior years:

Useful life

Buildings	82 years	Building fit-out	10–12 years
Buildings (right-of-use assets)	5-10 years	Leasehold improvements	10 years
Building plant	22-32 years	Plant and equipment (including leased assets)	3-30 years

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each annual reporting period. Where it is determined that the estimated useful life of an asset has changed, the depreciation rate for that asset is adjusted accordingly. The useful lives of assets has not changed since prior year.

The cost of a leasehold improvement is capitalised and depreciated over the shorter of the remaining term of the lease or their estimated useful lives.

Land and Cultural assets are not depreciated.

4.1.2 Impairment

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

The recoverable amount of primarily non-cash-generating assets of not-for-profit entities, which are typically specialised in nature and held for continuing use of their service capacity, is expected to be materially the same as fair value determined under AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement, with the consequence that AASB 136 does not apply to such assets that are regularly revalued.

(i) A scheduled full revaluation land and buildings and a fair value assessment of plant and equipment was undertaken as at 30 June 2021.

4.1.4 Reconciliation of movement in right-of-use assets

Right-of-use asset acquired by lessees – Initial measurement:

The National Gallery of Victoria recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for:

- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentive received; plus
- any initial direct costs incurred; and
- an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located.

Right-of-use asset – Subsequent measurement:

The National Gallery of Victoria depreciates the right-of-use assets on a straight-line basis from the lease commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The right-of-use assets are also subject to revaluation.

The National Gallery of Victoria presents right-of-use assets as 'property plant equipment' in the balance sheet. Lease liabilities are presented as 'borrowings' in the balance sheet (refer to Note 6.1).

4.2 Cultural assets

Cultural assets comprise works of art in the State Collection and other cultural assets. Control of the State Collection is vested in the Council of Trustees of the National Gallery of Victoria by virtue of the National Gallery of Victoria Act 1966, as amended. Additions to the State Collection may take the form of either a purchase by the National Gallery of Victoria or a donation from a third party.

All cultural assets are held for exhibition, education, research and historical interest. Such assets are deemed worthy of preservation because of the social rather than financial benefits they provide to the community. The nature of these assets means that there are certain limitations and restrictions imposed on their use and/or disposal.

Purchased cultural assets are initially carried at cost and revalued subsequently at fair value. Donated or bequeathed cultural assets are carried at fair value. Cultural assets are not depreciated as they do not have a finite useful life. The current use is considered the highest and best use.

An external revaluation process is required every five years, based upon the asset’s Government Purpose Classification, but may occur more frequently if material movements in fair value are identified. An independent valuation of the State Collection of works of art was performed by Jones Lang LaSalle Valuations & Advisory (JLL) as at 30 June 2021 on behalf of the Valuer-General Victoria. JLL utilised expert valuers approved under the Commonwealth of Australia Taxation Incentives for the Arts Scheme and other academic and professional bodies. There were no changes in the valuation techniques throughout the year to 30 June 2023. The valuations are performed on the assumption of highest and best use.

For the year ended 30 June 2023, JLL performed annual fair value assessments of the State Collection. This involved consideration of year-on-year movements in relevant art markets and transactions for artist and artwork specific to the artworks under consideration. These movements were applied to the valuations developed in the 2021 comprehensive valuation and the results extrapolated across the populations of the sub-collections. Further consideration was given to changes in foreign exchange rates relevant to the principal art markets identified for each work in 2021.

No revaluation increment has been applied in 2022-23 given the outcome of the fair value assessment.

An independent valuation of the National Gallery of Victoria’s Shaw Research Library collection was performed by Sainsbury’s Books Valuers Pty Ltd, a member of the Antiquarian Booksellers Association as at 30 June 2021. There were no changes in the valuation techniques throughout the year to 30 June 2023.

The National Gallery of Victoria holds cash, deposits and investments to provide for future operating and capital purposes, including the purchase of works of art for the State Collection. Funds are classified as current or non-current.

Current funds represent funds held either in transactional bank accounts or term deposits, or invested in order to reduce volatility in value and optimise the investment income earned.

Non-current funds represent funds held in perpetuity (endowed funds) and invested with the intent of maximising their long-term value. As a result, these funds may experience more volatility in value.

Investments held by the National Gallery of Victoria are measured at fair value in the manner described in Note 7.3.1.

NOTE 5. OTHER ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

This section sets out those assets and liabilities that arose from the National Gallery of Victoria’s operations.

Total receivables Represented by Current receivables	4,747	3,805

Contractual receivables are classified as financial instruments and categorised as financial assets at amortised cost. They are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. The National Gallery of Victoria holds the contractual receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

Statutory receivables do not arise from contracts and are recognised and measured similarly to contractual receivables (except for impairment), but are not classified as financial instruments for disclosure purposes. The National Gallery of Victoria applies AASB 9 for initial measurement of the statutory receivables, and as a result, statutory receivables are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction cost. Statutory receivables include amounts owing from the Victorian Government.

Details about the National Gallery of Victoria’s impairment policies, the National Gallery of Victoria’s exposure to credit risk are set out in note 7.1.2.

 - Statutory payables, that are recognised and measured similarly to contractual payables, but are not classified as financial instruments and not included in the category of financial liabilities at amortised cost, because they do not arise from contracts.

Payables for supplies and services have an average credit period of 30 days. No interest is charged on the Payables for supplies and services and Other payables.

In accordance with the nature of the payable as well as agreed terms with suppliers, the significant majority will mature within the next month.

6.2 Leases

Information about leases for which the National Gallery of Victoria is a lessee is presented below.

The National Gallery of Victoria's leasing activities

The National Gallery of Victoria leases various properties, IT equipment and motor vehicles. The lease contracts are typically made for fixed periods of 1-10 years with an option to renew the lease after that date. Lease payments for properties are re-negotiated to reflect market rentals.

For any new contracts entered into, the National Gallery of Victoria considers whether a contract is, or contains a lease. A lease is defined as 'a contract, or part of a contract, that conveys the right to use an asset (the underlying asset) for a period of time in exchange for consideration'. To apply this definition the National Gallery of Victoria assesses whether the contract meets three key evaluations:

- Whether the contract contains an identified asset, which is either explicitly identified in the contract or implicitly specified by being identified at the time the asset is made available to the National Gallery of Victoria and for which the supplier does not have substantive substitution rights;
- Whether the National Gallery of Victoria has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the identified asset throughout the period of use, considering its rights within the defined scope of the contract and the National Gallery of Victoria has the right to direct the use of the identified asset throughout the period of use; and
- Whether the National Gallery of Victoria has the right to take decisions in respect of 'how and for what purpose' the asset is used throughout the period of use.

This policy is applied to contracts entered into, or changed, on or after 1 July 2019.

Separation of lease and non-lease components

At inception or on reassessment of a contract that contains a lease component, the lessee is required to separate out and account separately for non-lease components within a lease contract and exclude these amounts when determining the lease liability and right-of-use asset amount.

Recognition and measurement of leases as a lessee

Lease Liability – initial measurement

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments unpaid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease if that rate is readily determinable or the National Gallery of Victoria’s incremental borrowing rate.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentive receivable; and
- variable payments based on an index or rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date.

Lease Liability – subsequent measurement

Subsequent to initial measurement, the liability will be reduced for payments made and increased for interest. It is remeasured to reflect any reassessment or modification, or if there are changes in-substance fixed payments.

When the lease liability is remeasured, the corresponding adjustment is reflected in the right-of-use asset, or profit and loss if the right-of-use asset is already reduced to zero.

Leases with significantly below-market terms and conditions

Right-of-use assets under leases at significantly below-market terms and conditions that are entered into principally to enable the NGV to further its objectives, are initially and subsequently measured at cost. The National Gallery of Victoria has the right to occupy and use parts of the Australian Ballet Centre’s offices for various administration activities. NGV is granted this right by Melbourne Arts Precinct Corporation for $1 consideration per annum for a term of 3 years.

6.3 Cash flow information and balances

Cash and deposits comprise cash on hand and cash at bank, deposits at call and those highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less, which are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment purposes, and which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

NOTE 7. RISK, CONTINGENCIES AND VALUATION JUDGEMENTS

Introduction

The National Gallery of Victoria is exposed to risk from its activities and outside factors. In addition, it is often necessary to make judgements and estimates associated with recognition and measurement of items in the financial statements. This section sets out financial instrument specific information, (including exposures to financial risks) as well as those items that are contingent in nature or require a higher level of judgement to be applied, which for the National Gallery of Victoria related mainly to fair value determination.

7.1 Financial instruments specific disclosures

Financial instruments arise out of contractual agreements that give rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Certain financial assets and financial liabilities arise under statute rather than a contract (for example taxes and amounts payable to other government agencies). Such assets and liabilities do not meet the definition of financial instruments in AASB 132 Financial Instruments: Presentation.

The National Gallery of Victoria classifies all of its financial assets based on the business model for managing the assets and the asset’s contractual terms.

Categories of financial assets

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are measured at amortised costs if both of the following criteria are met and the assets are not designated as fair value through net result:

- the assets are held by the National Gallery of Victoria to collect the contractual cash flows, and
- the assets’ contractual terms give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interests.

These assets are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method less any impairment.

The National Gallery of Victoria recognises the following assets in this category:

- cash and deposits;
- receivables (excluding statutory receivables); and
- other financial assets.

Financial assets at fair value through net result

Equity instruments that are held for trading as well as derivative instruments are classified as fair value through net result. Other financial assets are required to be measured at fair value through net result unless they are measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income as explained above.

However, as an exception to those rules above, the National Gallery of Victoria may, at initial recognition, irrevocably designate financial assets as measured at fair value through net result if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency ('accounting mismatch') that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

The National Gallery of Victoria has designated all of its investments in managed unit trusts and derivative assets at fair value through net result.

Categories of financial liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through net result

Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through net result are categorised as such at trade date, or if they are classified as held for trading or designated as such upon initial recognition. Financial instrument assets are designated at fair value through net result on the basis that the financial assets form part of the entity of financial assets that are managed based on their fair values and have their performance evaluated in accordance with documented risk management and investment strategies. Financial instruments at fair value through net result are initially measured at fair value; attributable transaction costs are expensed as incurred. Subsequently, any changes in fair value are recognised in the net result as other economic flows, unless the changes in fair value relate to changes in the National Gallery of Victoria’s own credit risk. In this case, the portion of the change attributable to changes in the National Gallery of Victoria’s own credit risk is recognised in other comprehensive income with no subsequent recycling to net result when the financial liability is derecognised. The National Gallery of Victoria’s recognises some debt securities that are held for trading in this category and designated certain debt securities as fair value through net result in this category.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities at amortised cost are initially recognised on the date they are originated. They are initially measured at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial instruments are measured at amortised cost with any difference between the initial recognised amount and the redemption value being recognised in profit and loss over the period of the interest-bearing liability, using the effective interest rate method. The National Gallery of Victoria recognises payables (excluding statutory payables), lease liabilities and borrowings in this category.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial instrument assets and liabilities are offset, and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the National Gallery of Victoria has a legal right to offset the amounts and intend either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the National Gallery of Victoria retains the right to receive cash flows from the asset, but has assumed an obligation to pay them in full without material delay to a third party under a ‘pass through’ arrangement; or
- the National Gallery of Victoria has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset and either:
 - has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset; or
 - has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset but has transferred control of the asset.

Where the National Gallery of Victoria has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards or transferred control, the asset is recognised to the extent of the National Gallery of Victoria’s continuing involvement in the asset.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised as an ‘other economic flow’ in the comprehensive operating statement.

Reclassification of financial instruments

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition unless the Group changes its business model for managing financial assets, in which case all affected financial assets are reclassified on the first day of the first reporting period following the change in the business model.

The Company's board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Group's risk management framework. The board of directors has established the risk management committee, which is responsible for developing and monitoring the Group's risk management policies.

7.1.2 Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the National Gallery of Victoria if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations and arises principally from the Group's receivables from customers and investment securities. The National Gallery of Victoria has determined the risk arising from credit risk is immaterial due to credit not applying to the majority of income including the Government appropriation, shop, membership, program and ticket revenue as well as investment income and donations. A robust credit check process is in place for all other revenue.

Impairment of financial assets under AASB 9

The National Gallery of Victoria records the allowance for expected credit loss for the relevant financial instruments applying AASB 9's Expected Credit Loss approach. Subject to AASB 9 impairment assessment includes the National Gallery of Victoria's contractual receivables, statutory receivables and its investment in debt instruments.

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under AASB 9. Other financial assets mandatorily measured or designated at fair value through net result are not subject to impairment assessment under AASB 9. While cash and cash equivalents are also subject to the impairment requirements of AASB 9, the identified impairment loss was immaterial.

Although not a financial asset, contract assets recognised applying AASB 15 (refer to Note 2.2) are also subject to impairment however it is immaterial.

Contractual receivables at amortised cost

The National Gallery of Victoria applies AASB 9 simplified approach for all contractual receivables to measure expected credit losses using a lifetime expected loss allowance based on the assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The National Gallery of Victoria has grouped contractual receivables on shared credit risk characteristics and days past due and select the expected credit loss rate based on the National Gallery of Victoria's past history, existing market conditions, as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of the financial year. On this basis, the National Gallery of Victoria determines the opening loss allowance on initial application date of AASB 9 and the closing loss allowance at end of the financial year as follows:

7.1.3 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk arises from being unable to meet financial obligations as they fall due. The National Gallery of Victoria operates under the Government fair payments policy of settling financial obligations within 30 days and in the event of a dispute, making payments within 30 days from the date of resolution.

The table below shows the maturity analysis of the material contractual undiscounted cash flows for borrowings:

Market risk

The National Gallery of Victoria's exposures to market risk is through interest rate risk.

7.1.4 Interest rate risk

Fair value interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The interest rate risk on cash at bank and bank deposits at call is not considered material to the reported result. The National Gallery of Victoria holds diversified fixed interest investments within its Medium-Term Fund managed by the Victorian Funds Management Corporation under the oversight of the National Gallery of Victoria's Investment Committee in accordance with the National Gallery of Victoria's investment strategy.

7.1.5 Equity price risk

The National Gallery of Victoria is exposed to equity price risk is immaterial.

The National Gallery of Victoria is exposed to equity price risk through its investments in listed and unlisted shares and managed investment schemes.

7.2 Contingent assets and contingent liabilities

Contingent assets and contingent liabilities are not recognised in the balance sheet but are disclosed and, if quantifiable, are measured at nominal value.

Contingent assets and liabilities are presented inclusive of GST receivable or payable respectively.

Contingent assets

Contingent assets are possible assets that arise from past events, whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity.

These are classified as either quantifiable, where the potential economic benefit is known, or non-quantifiable.

As at 30 June 2023, the National Gallery of Victoria had been pledged donations which are expected to be honoured in the future although they are not legally enforceable. The National Gallery of Victoria had also been advised of several deceased estates from which it expects to benefit once probate is granted, any other claims on the estate are settled and net assets are realised and distributed to beneficiaries. The timing and value of these future economic flows are contingent on events beyond the National Gallery of Victoria’s control. Consistent with Note 2.3.1, the National Gallery of Victoria only recognises these transactions in the financial statements once they are actually received.

Contingent liabilities

Contingent liabilities are:

- possible obligations that arise from past events, whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or
- present obligations that arise from past events but are not recognised because:
 - it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligations; or
 - the amount of the obligations cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Contingent liabilities are also classified as either quantifiable or non-quantifiable.

As at 30 June 2023, the National Gallery of Victoria had no contingent liabilities (2021/22: nil).

7.3 Fair value determination

Significant judgement: Fair value measurements of assets and liabilities

Fair value determination requires judgement and the use of assumptions. This section discloses the most significant assumptions used in determining fair values. Changes to assumptions could have a material impact on the results and financial position of the National Gallery of Victoria.

This section sets out information on how the National Gallery of Victoria determined fair value for financial reporting purposes. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The following assets and liabilities are carried at fair value:

- Investments in managed unit trust at fair value through net result;
- Land, buildings, plant and equipment; and
- Cultural assets.

In addition, the fair values of other assets and liabilities that are carried at amortised cost, also need to be determined for disclosure purposes.

The National Gallery of Victoria determines the policies and procedures for determining fair values for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities as required.

Fair value hierarchy

In determining fair values a number of inputs are used. To increase consistency and comparability in the financial statements, these inputs are categorised into three levels, also known as the fair value hierarchy. The levels are as follows:

Level 1 – quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 – valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable; and

Level 3 – valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

The National Gallery of Victoria determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

7.3.1 Fair value determination of financial assets and liabilities

The fair values and net fair values of financial assets and liabilities are determined as follows:

- Level 1 – the fair value of financial instrument with standard terms and conditions and traded in active liquid markets are determined with reference to quoted market prices;
- Level 2– the fair value is determined using inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the financial asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3– the fair value is determined in accordance with generally accepted pricing models based on discounted cash flow analysis using unobservable market inputs.

The National Gallery of Victoria currently holds a range of financial instruments that are recorded in the financial statements where the carrying amounts approximate fair value, either due to their short-term nature or with the expectation that they will be paid in full by the end of the 2022/23 reporting period.

These financial instruments include:

Financial assets	Financial liabilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cash and deposits• Receivables• Term Deposits• Investment in managed unit trusts	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Payables• Contractual liabilities• Borrowings

The National Gallery of Victoria categorises these instruments as level 1. The National Gallery of Victoria invests in managed funds which are not quoted in an active market and which may be subject to restrictions on redemptions.
(iii) The National Gallery of Victoria considers the valuation techniques and inputs used in valuing these funds as part of its due diligence prior to investment, to ensure they are reasonable and appropriate and therefore the net asset value (NAV) of these funds may be used as an input into measuring their fair value. In measuring this fair value, the NAV of the funds is adjusted, as necessary, to reflect restrictions and redemptions, future commitments and other specific factors of the fund. In measuring fair value, consideration is also paid to any transactions in the shares of the fund. To the extent that the significant inputs are observable, the National Gallery of Victoria categorises these investments as level 2. All hedging has been performed by VFMC.

Fair value measurement hierarchy for assets as at 30 June 2023 (and 30 June 2022)

	Valuation Technique	Significant Unobservable Inputs
State Collection of works of art	A statistical sampling valuation approach was used for works of art valued at less than $500,000.	Statistical calculation based on extrapolation of sample valuations.
	The market approach was used for works of art valued at $500,000 or more.	The use of prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable (i.e. similar) assets
Shaw Research Library collection	Professional judgement used for the valuation of books valued at less than $1,000.	Valuation of items using professional judgement

The market approach was applied as the valuation technique for valuing the Collection in 2021. Consideration was given to the prices for transactions of similar assets that have occurred recently in the market. In the event that there are few, recent transactions, prices of similar assets offered for sale may be considered where the information is clearly relevant. This price information may be adjusted for known transactional differences or physical characteristics between the similar and other asset. JLL factored the impact of COVID-19 in terms of foreign exchange rates and the lead time to sell art in the current market. All works of art were valued according to highest and best use and the most advantageous market.

Professional judgement was required to establish fair value during the valuation process. This involved taking into account the artist, artwork, condition, provenance and marketplace. In applying professional judgment, the expert valuers had to evaluate their valuations for reasonableness against market and academic research as well as other transactions of artwork.

The value of the Collection could change in future financial years as a result of changes in the significant and unobservable valuation inputs that have been adopted to determine the fair value.

These accounting standards have not been applied to the National Gallery of Victoria's Financial Statements. The National Gallery of Victoria is reviewing its existing policies and assessing the potential implications of these accounting standards.

AASB 2022-10 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Fair Value Measurement of Non-Financial Assets of Not-for-Profit Public Sector Entities.

AASB 2022-10 amends AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement by adding authoritative implementation guidance and illustrative examples for fair value measurements of non-financial assets of not-for-profit public sector entities not held primarily for their ability to generate net cash inflows.

This Standard applies prospectively to annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024, with earlier application permitted.

AASB 2020-1 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current and AASB 2022-6 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Non-current Liabilities with Covenants

AASB 2020-1 amended AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements to clarify requirements for the presentation of liabilities in the statement of financial position as current or non-current and was applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022.

AASB 2020-6 subsequently amended AASB 2020-1, deferring the mandatory effective date of AASB 2020-1 from 1 January 2022 to 1 January 2023. AASB 2022-6 was applicable for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022.

- AASB 2022-6 amends and clarifies the requirements contained in AASB 2020-1. Among other things, it:
- clarifies that only those covenants that an entity must comply with at or before the reporting date affect a liability's classification as current or non-current; and
 - requires additional disclosures for non-current liabilities that are subject to an entity complying with covenants within twelve months after the reporting date.

AASB 2022-6 applies to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023. A number of other standards and amendments have also been issued that apply to future reporting periods, however they are not expected to have any significant impact on the financial statements in the period of initial application.

Notes: In reporting employee numbers, the following assumptions have been applied:

- casual FTE is based on the hours worked in the last pay period of the financial year
- ‘ongoing employees’ includes people engaged on an open-ended contract of employment who were active in the last pay period of the financial year.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE DISABILITY ACT 2006 (Vic)

The Disability Act 2006 (Vic) reaffirms and strengthens the rights of people with disability and recognises that this requires support across the government sector and within the community. The NGV’s Disability Action Plan (DAP) 2021–24 supports the Gallery’s commitment to provide inclusive and accessible exhibitions, programs and services to enable broad participation.

The following initiatives and programs were delivered in 2022/23:

- Relaxed Sessions provided out-of-hours access to exhibitions for those who benefit from a quieter gallery experience, including people living with disability, autism, mental or chronic health conditions or frailty. Events were presented for NGV Collection displays and for exhibitions, including Julian Opie: Studio for Kids; Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse; Making Art: Imagine Everything is Real; QUEER: Stories from the NGV Collection; The Picasso Century; Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Art and Design from the NGV Collection; Rembrandt: True to Life; and Melbourne Now.
- A suite of digital audio descriptions of artworks from the NGV Collection was created in collaboration with Description Victoria and Access2Arts and made available for free access on the NGV website. Works from exhibitions Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse; China – The Past is Present; WHO ARE YOU: Australian Portraiture; and QUEER: Stories from the NGV Collection were featured.
- Auslan tours were conducted at the Gallery and led by Deaf artists Luke King, Phoenix Cheung and Elizabeth Reed for NGV Collection displays and the exhibitions Indigenous Art from the NGV Collection; The Picasso Century; China – The Past is Present; Melbourne Now; and Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse.
- Community organisations, such as Yellow Ladybugs, Little Dreamers and specialist schools were included in the NGV Kids on Tour outreach programming, providing free art materials and activities to Partners across Victoria.
- The Your NGV Arts Access Program for Students, Children and Families, supported by the Packer Family and Crown Resorts Foundations, had a strategic focus on engaging special schools and provided tailored, onsite and outreach programs for students and teachers from eight special schools during 2022/23.
- In collaboration with RMIT University and Linda Knight (Associate Professor, RMIT), the NGV delivered an outreach session to students from a specialist school. This session was designed to provide students with disabilities and/or additional learning needs with a creative process to enable them to engage with and respond to art and their surroundings in meaningful and purposeful ways.
- In collaboration with Karlee Sangster, Specialist Art Educator at Croxton Special School in Northcote, the NGV developed a series of Accessible Learning with Art Resources to provide opportunities for students with diverse learning abilities to view and meaningfully respond to works of art and design from the NGV Collection.

Accessible venue, exhibitions and displays

The NGV continued to provide a range of seating options in public spaces and within exhibitions. Wheelchairs and a motorised scooter are available for free hire. Large-print artwork labels were available onsite and online for free download from the NGV website. The Gallery continues to recognise the Companion Card, which provides cardholders with a second ticket to exhibitions and programs free of charge. Companion Card holders receive a concession discount.

Sensory maps showing areas of sensory stimuli and places to rest were produced for major exhibitions, including Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse; Freedom of Movement: Contemporary Art and Design from the NGV Collection; Julian Opie: Studio for Kids; and Melbourne Now. Visual-style social scripts assisted autistic children and were available for free download from the NGV website or could be collected onsite.

Arts Access Victoria was engaged to facilitate ninety-minute training sessions for front-facing staff focusing on ways of creating a welcoming environment for Deaf and Disabled people.

Communication and accessible information and technology

The NGV website is an important source for communication and information about events, tools and initiatives available to visitors with access requirements. The NGV website is designed, built and maintained in keeping with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG). The NGV website assists visitors to pre-plan their visit and navigate the NGV Collection, programs and exhibition spaces in advance and offers selected virtual tours of exhibitions online. The NGV captions video content shared across social media, website and digital channels to enhance accessibility and engagement with audiences.

Targeted social media activity continues to promote the NGV’s diverse offering and engage individuals and organisations that represent people with disability. World Autism Day was promoted through NGV’s social media and included information on available Access resources and events. An event celebrating the day was hosted by the NGV and Yellow Ladybugs at NGV International.

For NGV staff who self-publish on the NGV website, the NGV Multimedia department has created online accessibility guidelines for staff training and consultation. These guidelines ensure self-publishers understand web accessibility and produce consistently accessible web content on the NGV website.

Recruitment

The NGV is an Equal Opportunity Employer that values diversity in the workplace and is committed to making reasonable adjustments to provide a positive, barrier-free recruitment process and supportive workplace.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Vic) (the Act) allows the public a right of access to documents held by the NGV. The purpose of the Act is to extend as far as possible the right of the community to access information held by government departments, local councils, ministers and other bodies subject to the Act.

An applicant has a right to apply for access to documents held by the NGV. This comprises documents both created by the NGV or supplied to the NGV by an external organisation or individual, and may also include maps, films, microfiche, photographs, computer printouts, computer discs, tape recordings and videotapes. Information about the type of material produced by the NGV is available on the NGV website under its Part II Information Statement.

The Act allows the NGV to refuse access, either fully or partially, to certain documents or information. Examples of documents that may not be accessed include cabinet documents; some internal working documents; law enforcement documents; documents covered by legal professional privilege, such as legal advice; personal information about other people; and information provided to the NGV in-confidence and information that is confidential under another Act.

The processing time for requests is thirty days. In some cases, this time may be extended.

If an applicant is not satisfied by a decision made by the NGV under section 49A of the Act, they have the right to seek a review by the Office of the Victorian Information Commissioner (OVIC) within twenty-eight days of receiving a decision letter.

Making a request

Freedom of information (FOI) requests can be lodged through a written request to the NGV’s Freedom of Information Officer, as detailed in section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Vic). An application fee of $31.80 applies. Access charges may also be payable. These normally apply if the document pool is large, and the search for material is time consuming.

When making an FOI request, applicants should ensure requests are in writing, and clearly identify what types of material/documents are being sought.

Requests for documents in the possession of the NGV should be addressed to:

Freedom of Information Officer
National Gallery of Victoria
PO Box 7259
Melbourne VIC 3004
or via email to foi@ngv.vic.gov.au

FOI statistics and timelines

The NGV received three applications during 2022/23. Of these requests, two were from Members of Parliament, and one was from the media.

The NGV made three FOI decisions during the 12 months ended 30 June 2023. Three decisions were made within the statutory time periods. A total of three FOI access decisions were made where access to documents was granted in full, in part, or denied in full. One decision was made after mandatory extensions had been applied or extensions were agreed upon by the applicant. Of the requests finalised, the average number of days over the statutory time (including extended timeframes) to decide the request was nil days.

During 2022/23, one request was subject to a complaint/internal review by OVIC, with nil progressing to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

Further information regarding the operation and scope of FOI can be obtained from the Act; regulations made under the Act; and www.ovic.vic.gov.au.

PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURES

The Public Interest Disclosures Act 2012 (Vic) encourages and assists people in making disclosures of improper conduct by public officers and public bodies. The Act provides protection to people who make disclosures in accordance with the Act and establishes a system for the matters disclosed to be investigated and rectifying action to be taken.

The NGV does not tolerate improper conduct by employees, nor the taking of reprisals against those who come forward to disclose such conduct. The NGV is committed to ensuring transparency and accountability in its administrative and management practices and supports the making of disclosures that reveal corrupt conduct, conduct involving substantial mismanagement of public resources, or conduct involving a substantial risk to public health and safety or the environment.

The NGV has procedures to protect people who make such disclosures from any detrimental action in reprisal for making the disclosure. These procedures are available to the public on the NGV website www.ngv.vic.gov.au/about/reports-and-documents/public-interest-disclosures-procedures.

Reporting procedures

The NGV is not a public body to which disclosures may be made. Disclosures of improper conduct or detrimental action relating to the NGV should be made to the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC), or the Victorian Ombudsman (VO). Further information about making disclosures can be found at www.ibac.vic.gov.au (IBAC); and www.ombudsman.vic.gov.au.

CHILD SAFETY STANDARDS

In line with the Child Safe Standards under the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 (Vic), the NGV is committed to upholding |the Victorian Child Safe Standards to the best of its abilities and resources.

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

The NGV is committed to a future in which it operates sustainably within the natural and built environments. We manage our resources to minimise environmental impacts, whilst maintaining public access to the state Collection and conserving it for future generations.

- The NGV has established a sustainability Framework that includes a policy, committee, plans and regular monitoring and reporting. As captured in the Environmental Sustainability Policy, the Gallery aims to:
- demonstrate excellence in sustainable management of resources and reduction of its carbon footprint
 - seek effective and efficient solutions to improve water, energy, and waste outcomes
 - consider initiatives to reduce the Gallery’s impact on the environment
 - work towards key performance indicators set out in the annual Gallery’s Environmental Plan
 - work with partner agencies, landlords and suppliers to minimise the Gallery’s environmental footprint.

Initiatives

As part of the Victorian Government’s Greener Government Buildings Initiative, the NGV is currently three years into the five-year verification phase for its Energy Performance Contract (EPC).

The EPC initiatives include the installation of solar panels on the NGV International roof to generate renewable energy and a range of energy savings initiatives including LED light fittings, valve replacement to convert air and water supply continual to on-demand, upgrade of air conditioning filtration and environmental control optimisation within gallery spaces at NGV International. This project has led to a sustained reduction in energy usage and carbon emissions.

- During 2022/23, the NGV implemented the principles of its Environmental Sustainability Policy through the following other key operational activities and initiatives:
- completed a carbon audit of gallery operations to identify key emission sources, to inform reduction opportunities
 - collaborated with inaugural sustainability partner ACCIONA, to gather insights into the sustainability performance of our Melbourne Winter Masterpieces® series, to inform improvement opportunities
 - continued NGV’s partnership with the Getty Conservation Institute to research artwork responses to climate fluctuations
 - continued to implement Bizot Green Protocol’s international standards that allow for wider temperature and humidity parameters for collection and loan artworks to mitigate environmental impacts
 - continued to implement improvements to plant, equipment and system to increase energy performance, especially during high-usage times such as over summer peak periods
 - continued to revise the air-conditioning program at NGV International, which takes advantage of identified thermal efficiencies
 - continued harvesting of rainwater for use in the NGV International’s moats
 - continued collection, tracking and reporting of environmental data.

Carbon Neutral Roadmap

As part of Australia’s obligations under the Paris Agreement, the Victorian Government has adopted a target of net zero emissions by 2050, with interim targets to reduce emissions by 28–33% by 2025 and 45–50% by 2030 for Scope 1 and 2 Emissions.

- The NGV has developed a Carbon Neutral Roadmap to ensure that the Gallery meets these targets. The roadmap includes a range of additional activities that will see the continued reduction in Scope 1 and 2 energy usage and corresponding carbon emissions, including transition to 100% renewable electricity (Green Energy) at both NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia from 1 July 2023.
- This report captures the data relating to the reporting period 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023 for the following NGV facilities:
 - NGV International, 180 St Kilda Road, Melbourne
 - The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, Federation Square, Melbourne

COMPLIANCE WITH THE BUILDING ACT 1993 (Vic)

During 2022/23, the NGV-owned and controlled premises at 180 St Kilda Road, Melbourne, 3006 (NGV International) complied with all provisions outlined in the Building Act 1993 (Vic) and the National Construction Code. As at 21 June 2023, an independent review confirmed that essential safety measures were compliant with the requirements of the occupancy permit for these premises.

During 2022/23, the NGV completed several projects at NGV International as part of the Gallery’s asset renewal and capital works program. All building works of more than $50,000 in value were subject to certification of plans, mandatory inspections of the works, issue of building permits and certificates of final inspection.

In 2022/23, the NGV was also issued with sixteen building permits for exhibition construction across NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. For each permit, a registered building surveyor provided the appropriate inspection certificate at the completion of the projects. No changes to the occupancy levels of either building were required as a result of these construction projects. No emergency or building orders were issued in relation to buildings owned and operated by the NGV.

The NGV regularly (at least annually) conducts condition inspections of all buildings and equipment to ensure service requirements are being met. Where maintenance or renewal work is required, this is included in future maintenance and capital plans, and completed tasking into account assessments of risk and availability of financial and other resources.

No building was required to be brought into conformity during the year.

COMPETITIVE NEUTRALITY POLICY

Competitive neutrality aims to eliminate distortions of resource allocation arising from the public ownership of entities engaged in significant business activities. Government business should not enjoy a net competitive advantage resulting from their public sector ownership. Where such advantages are found to exist, certain measures are required to be implemented in order to achieve competitive neutrality.

The NGV is committed to the application of competitive neutrality principles as set out in the Victorian Competitive Neutrality Policy. However, the Gallery does not currently carry out any significant business activities that fall within the scope of the Competitive Neutrality Policy.

IMPLEMENTATION OF LOCAL JOBS FIRST

The Local Jobs First Policy brings together the Victorian Industry Participation Policy and Major Project Skills Guarantee Policy. Application of the policy is mandatory for all Victorian Government departments and agencies, including the NGV.

The Local Jobs First Policy applies to all projects valued at $3 million or more in statewide and metropolitan Melbourne projects, or valued at $1 million or more for regional Victoria projects.

During 2022/23, the NGV did not undertake any projects applicable to the Local Jobs First Policy.

IMPLEMENTATION OF SOCIAL PROCUREMENT FRAMEWORK

The Victorian Government’s Social Procurement Framework is a whole-of-government framework outlining approaches to social procurement, the implementation of which aims to achieve both social and sustainable outcomes to benefit Victorians.

The NGV has developed its Social Procurement Strategy in line with this framework and is committed to the following objectives:

- supporting safe and fair workplaces
- using environmentally sustainable business practices
- providing opportunities for disadvantaged Victorians.

The NGV Social Procurement Strategy is primarily implemented through the procurement processes and tools for complex goods and services, of which there were one applicable procurement in 2022/23: Fine Art Transport Services. The Fine Art Transport Services procurement process included evaluation criteria that enabled assessment of the social procurement opportunities of the public tender submissions. NGV will monitor the appointed companies to ensure that their commitments to workplace health and safety, environmental sustainability and opportunities for disadvantaged Victorians, are delivered throughout the contract.

DISCLOSURE OF EMERGENCY PROCUREMENT

During 2022/23, the NGV did not activate emergency procurement in accordance with the requirements of government policy and accompanying guidelines, and no new contracts were awarded in connection with an emergency.

MAJOR CONTRACTS

The NGV has not signed any major contracts (over $10million in value) for the year ended 30 June 2023.

CONSULTANCIES

In 2022/23, there were three consultancies where the total fees payable to the consultants were $10,000 or greater. The total expenditure incurred during 2022/23 in relation to these consultancies was $115,675 (excl. GST). Details of individual consultancies can be viewed at www.ngv.vic.gov.au/about/reports-and-documents/. In 2022/23, there were four consultancies where the total fees payable to the consultant was less than $10,000. The total expenditure incurred during 2022/23 in relation to these consultancies was $12,721 (excl. GST).
